GAZETTE.

(Supplementary, July 20, 1893).

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1893.

Her Majesty the Queen having been pleased to cause Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom erecting the Settlements in the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies into a Colony, and constituting the Office of Governor and Commander in Chief thereof, and providing for the Government of the Colony; the said Letters Patent are now hereby, and for the first time, published for general information,

By Command.

R. M. ROUTLEDGE,

Colonial Secretary.

Government Secretariat, Stanley,
19th July, 1893.

FALKLAND ISLANDS.

LETTERS PATENT passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, constituting the Office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of the Falkland Islands, and providing for the Government thereof.

*Letters Patent dated 25th
February, 1892.*

Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, Empress of India: To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting.

Preamble.

Revises Letters Patent of 23rd June, 1843

WHEREAS, by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster the Twenty-third day of June 1843, We did make provision for the Government of Our Settlements in the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies:

april 28th April, 1876.

And whereas by certain other Letters Patent under the said Great Seal, bearing date at Westminster the Twenty-eighth day of April 1876, We did constitute the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Our said Settlements in the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies, and did make further provision for the government of Our said Settlements:

And whereas We are minded to make further provision for the government of Our said Settlements in the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies:

Revokes Letters Patent of 23rd June 1843 and 28th
April 1876.

Now know ye that We do by these presents revoke and determine Our said Letters Patent of the Twenty-third day of June 1843 and the Twenty-eighth day of April 1876, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder; and We do by these Our Letters Patent declare Our will and pleasure as follows:—

Colony.

"settlement," We do hereby delegate to the persons who shall from time to time compose the said Legislative Council full power and authority, subject always to any conditions, provisoes, and limitations prescribed by any Instructions under Our Sign Manual and Signet, to establish such Ordinances, not being repugnant to the Law of England, and to constitute such Courts and Officers, and to make such provisions and regulations for the proceedings in such Courts and for the administration of justice, as may be necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony.

VIII. We do hereby reserve to Ourselves, Our heirs and successors, full power and authority, and Our and their undoubted right, to disallow any such Ordinances, and to signify such disallowance through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State. Every such disallowance shall take effect from the time when the same shall be promulgated by the Governor in the Colony.

We do also reserve to Ourselves, Our heirs and successors, Our and their undoubted right, with the advice of Our or their Privy Council, from time to time to make all such Laws or Ordinances as may appear to Us or them necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony.

IX. In the making of any Ordinances the Governor and the Legislative Council shall conform to and observe all rules, regulations, and directions in that behalf contained in any Instructions under Our Sign Manual and Signet.

X. The Governor, in Our name and on Our behalf, may make and execute, under the Public Seal, grants and dispositions of any lands within the Colony which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by Us : Provided that every such grant or disposition be made in conformity, either with some law in force in the Colony, or with some Instructions addressed to the Governor under Our Sign Manual and Signet or through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, or with some regulation in force in the Colony.

XI. The Governor may constitute and appoint all such Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace, and other necessary Officers and Ministers as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by Us, all of whom, unless otherwise provided by law, shall hold their offices during Our pleasure.

XII. The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any office within the Colony, whether appointed by virtue of any Commission or Warrant from Us or in Our name or by any other mode of appointment. Every such suspension shall continue and have effect only until Our pleasure therein shall be signified to the Governor. In proceeding to any such suspension, the Governor is strictly to observe the directions in that behalf given to him by any Instructions as aforesaid.

XIII. When any crime has been committed within the Colony, or for which the offender may be tried therein, the Governor may, as he shall see occasion, in Our name and on Our behalf, grant a pardon to any accomplice in such crime who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders, if more than one ; and further, may grant to any offender convicted in any Court, or before any Judge or other Magistrate within the Colony, a pardon either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any remission of the sentence passed on such offender, or any respite of the execution of such sentence for such period as the Governor thinks fit ; and may remit any fines, Provided always that the Governor shall in no case, except where the offence has been of a political nature unaccompanied by any other grave crime, make it a condition of any pardon or remission of sentence that the offender shall be banished from or shall absent himself or be removed from the Colony.

XIV. Whenever the office of Governor is vacant, or if the Governor become incapable or be absent from the Colony, Our Lieutenant Governor of the Colony, or if there be no such Officer therein, then such person or persons as We may appoint under Our Sign Manual and Signet, and in default of any such appointment the Senior Member for the time being of the Executive Council of the Colony, shall, during our pleasure, administer the Government of the Colony, first taking the Oaths herein-before directed to be taken by the Governor and in the manner herein prescribed; which being done, We do hereby authorize, empower, and command Our Lieutenant Governor or any other such Administrator as aforesaid to do and execute during Our pleasure all things that belong to the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief, according to the tenour of these Our Letters Patent, and according to Our Instructions as aforesaid, and the Laws of the Colony.

XV. And We do hereby require and command all Our Officers and Ministers, Civil and Military, and all other the inhabitants of the Colony, to be obedient, aiding, and assisting unto the Governor and to such person or persons as may from time to time under the provisions of these Our Letters Patent administer the Government of the Colony.

XVI. In the construction of these Our Letters Patent, the term "the Governor," unless inconsistent with the context, shall include every person for the time being administering the Government of the Colony.

XVII. And We do hereby reserve to Ourselves, Our heirs and successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter or amend these Our Letters Patent as to us or them shall seem fit.

XVIII. And We do direct and enjoin that these Our Letters Patent shall be read and proclaimed at such place or places within the Colony as the Governor may think fit.

In witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent. Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the Twenty-fifth day of February, in the Fifty-fifth year of Our Reign,

By Warrant under the Queen's Sign Manual.

MUIR MACKENZIE,
