Royal Humane Society Medal.

His Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following correspondence with the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies.
3rd January, 1901.

From the Governor to the Secretary of State.

Government House, Stanley,
9th July, 1900.

Sir,

I have the honour to transmit a copy of a letter from Dr. Foley, reporting a very courageous act on the part of Mr. Alexander Morrison; and I venture to express a hope that you may deem the circumstances worthy of being brought to the notice of the Royal Humane Society.

2. The very low temperature of the water in this Colony greatly enhances the value of the services rendered by Mr. Morrison.

I have, &c.,

(Signed)

W. GREY-WILSON,

The Right Honourable J. Chamberlain, M.P.

Stanley,
2nd July, 1900.

Sir,

I beg to bring before His Excellency's notice a conspicuous act of courage on the part of Mr. Alexander Morrison which I think Your Excellency will agree with me is deserving of some official recognition.

The circumstances were as follows:—On the evening of March 20th a party of four were riding in from Darwin to Stanley after a very heavy fall of rain which was still continuing, the streams being so full as to be almost impassable. On reaching the Fitzroy river three of the party passed over on horses safely, though with considerable difficulty—the fourth was mounted on a timid horse, and in the current of the stream the horse turned turtle three times with its rider, Mr. Gorton, who then parted company with the horse, and was washed some yards down the stream, eventually being able to clutch at some reeds on the opposite bank in a very exhausted condition. The horse continued to roll over, and reached the bank some yards further down on the same side from which they had essayed to cross.

Although wet through, and much encumbered with heavy riding gear, Mr. Morrison had started into the river to Mr. Gorton's assistance, but seeing that he had reached the opposite side swam his horse back across the river. When he found that Mr. Gorton was safe, he re-crossed to the rest of the party, and they decided that two should ride to the nearest house and procure a lasso. On their return Mr. Morrison again swam the river with the lasso, fastened it to his own horse, on which he mounted Mr. Gorton, and they were successfully pulled across by the others. The lasso was thrown back to Mr. Morrison who then mounted the horse which had failed to cross the stream at first, and he in turn was drawn across, the horse turning over in the middle of the current in exactly the same way as before.

It was entirely out of the question to have left Mr. Gorton on the opposite side of the river, as the nearest house was two hours ride distant, and darkness had set in. Mr. Morrison crossed the river 5 times in all. After the first crossing his clothes were quite wet through, and added considerably to the danger of the service which he performed.

In the course of my duties which have taken me over this country in almost every condition of weather I have not before witnessed a more courageous act.

I am, Sir,

Your Excellency's obedient servant,

C. N. FOLEY,

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary.

No. 33.      Message from His Majesty the King.

The Governor directs the publication of the following message from His Majesty the King which has been telegraphed to His Excellency by the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies.
26th February, 1901.

To my people beyond the Seas.

The countless messages of loyal sympathy which I have received from every part of My Dominions over the Seas testify to the universal grief in which the whole Empire now mourns the loss of My Beloved Mother. In the welfare and prosperity of Her subjects throughout Greater Britain the Queen ever evinced a heartfelt interest. She saw with thankfulness the steady progress which, under a wide extension of self Government, they had made during Her reign. She warmly appreciated their unfailing loyalty to Her throne and Person, and was proud to think of those who had so nobly fought and died for the Empire's cause in South Africa. I have already declared that it will be My constant endeavour to follow the great example which has been bequeathed to Me. In these endeavours I shall have a confident trust in the devotion and sympathy of the people and of their several representative assemblies throughout My vast Colonial Dominions. With such loyal support I will, with God's blessing, solemnly work for the promotion of the common welfare and security of the great Empire over which I have now been called to reign.

3.—Whenever by any law which shall not contain an express provision to the contrary any act, matter or thing is required to be done by more than one Justice, all such acts, matters or things may be done and performed by a Magistrate of this Colony sitting alone, and, subject to the provisions of this or any other law, a Magistrate shall have full power, authority and jurisdiction—

Powers of Magistrate to act alone.

(1) To receive and inquire into all charges of indictable offences, and make such order in respect thereof as may be required.

(2) To hear, try and determine all complaints cognizable on Summary Judication.

(3) In all suits where the claim, debt, or damage or balance sought to be recovered shall not exceed the sum of Fifty Pounds, and in all suits for the recovery of the possession of a tenement where the annual rent or value thereof shall not exceed the said amount, and every such suit shall be originally instituted in the Summary Court, and

(4) Generally to do any such act, matter or thing as may by any law appertain to the office of a Magistrate or to any Justice, but he shall not have power to impose a longer term of imprisonment than one year.

6.—It shall be lawful for any Justice to hear and determine (either on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, or on the confession of the person charged) any information relating to an offence against any Ordinance containing no provisions to the contrary provided that no single Justice may impose a larger fine than Five Pounds.

When one Justice alone may act.

7.—One Justice may issue any summons, and any warrant of arrest, distress or commitment even in cases where the complaint must be heard by two or more Justices, provided that when two or more Justices are required to hear any case they must be present and acting together during the whole of the hearing and determination of the case.

Information must be laid within 12 months.

8.—When no time is specially limited for laying any information it shall not exceed twelve months from the time when the matter of such information arose.

PROCEDURE BEFORE HEARING.

Summons and Warrants.

9.—Whenever an information is laid before a Justice that any person has or is suspected to have committed any act for which he is liable by law to be imprisoned or fined or otherwise punished, and also in cases where a Summary Court has authority by law to make any order for the payment of money or otherwise such Justice may issue a summons or warrant as hereinafter provided, and every such summons or warrant shall be under the hand and seal of the Justice issuing the same.

Summons how served.

10.—A summons shall state shortly the matter of the complaint and shall name a day and hour for the defendant to appear at the Court, and such summons shall be served by delivery to the person to whom it is directed or by leaving it at his usual place of abode, or in such other special manner as the Justice may direct, provided that nothing herein shall oblige any Justice to issue any summons in any case where the application for an order is to be made ex parte.

11.—A witness may be summoned by any Justice upon the oath of a credible person that such witness is likely to give material evidence and will not come voluntarily. Proof of the service of a summons upon a defendant or witness shall be upon oath.

Proof of service.

12.—It shall be lawful for a Justice to issue a warrant of arrest in any of the following cases; that is to say :—

When warrant of arrest may issue.

(1.) Where an information of a felony or of an offence punishable on conviction by imprisonment is supported on oath to his satisfaction and it shall appear that the person should be immediately arrested to secure the ends of justice.

(2.) Where any person fails to appear at the time and place mentioned in any summons, and due proof of the service of such summons is given, and that such service has allowed a reasonable time for the defendant to appear, and that the case cannot or should not be heard in the absence of the defendant or his representative; provided that the Court may, instead of issuing a warrant, proceed ex parte to hear the complaint and adjudicate thereon as fully and effectually as if such party had personally appeared.

(3.) Where any witness shall neglect or refuse to attend and no just excuse shall be offered for such neglect or refusal, and after proof that the witness was summoned and that a reasonable sum was tendered to him for his expense in that behalf, provided that instead of committing such witness to prison the Court may in a summary way impose a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

(4.) Where such Justice is satisfied by evidence upon oath that it is probable that a witness will not attend and give evidence if summoned.

A warrant may be executed by any Constable or person to whom it is directed and shall state shortly the matter of the information, and shall name or otherwise describe the person against whom it has been issued, and such warrant may remain in force until it is executed, and any Constable or other person named, whether he have the warrant with him or not, may apprehend the said defendant.

13.—Any person who shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure, or attempt to commit or procure the commission of any offence punishable on summary conviction shall be liable to be proceeded against and convicted for the same, either together with the principal offender, or before or after his conviction, and shall be liable on conviction to the same penalty to which such principal offender shall be by law liable.

Aiders and Abettors.

14.—If any information shall be given upon oath to any Justice that there is reasonable cause to suspect that anything stolen or unlawfully obtained is concealed or lodged in any dwelling-house, ship, or other place, it shall be lawful for such Justice by warrant under his hand directed to any Constable to cause any such dwelling-house, ship, or other place to be entered and searched at any time of the day or by night (if power for that purpose be given by such warrant), and the said Justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may empower such Constable, with such assistance as may be found necessary (such Constable having previously made known such his authority), to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise, and if upon search thereupon made any such thing shall be found, then to convey the same before a Justice, or otherwise dispose thereof in some place of safety, and to take into custody and carry before a Justice any person found in such house, ship, or place, who shall appear to have been privy to the deposit of any such thing knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect the same to be stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

PROCEEDINGS ON HEARING.

Complaints to be heard in open Court.

15.—Every complaint cognizable on summary judication shall be heard and determined in an open Court to which the public shall have access so far as the same will conveniently contain them, and the Court shall, in every case, take notes in writing of the evidence, or of so much thereof as is material, in a book to be kept for that purpose.

Procedure on hearing.

16.—On the hearing of any complaint cognizable on summary judication the Court shall state to the defendant the substance of the complaint and shall ask him what answer, if any, he desires to make thereto.

(1.) If the defendant thereupon admit the truth of the complaint and show no sufficient cause why an order should not be made against him the Court shall make such order against him as the justice of the case requires.

(2.) If the defendant does not admit the truth of the complaint the witnesses on both sides shall, unless the Court in any case expressly orders, be placed out of Court.

(3.) The Court shall then proceed to hear the complainant and such witnesses as he may examine and then the defendant and such witnesses as he may examine and then such witnesses as the complainant may examine in reply if the defendant has examined any witness or given any evidence other than as to his the defendant's general character, but the complainant shall not be entitled to make any observations in reply upon the evidence given by the defendant nor shall the defendant be entitled to make any observations in reply upon the evidence given by the complainant in reply as aforesaid.

Power of Court to order that no person shall be present at preliminary investigation.

17.—It shall be lawful for the Court to order that no person shall be present without the permission of the Court at the holding of a preliminary investigation when the offence charged is only triable before the Supreme Court and the Court is of opinion that the ends of justice will be best answered by so doing.

Depositions.

18.—All evidence given at a preliminary investigation shall be taken down in writing and such depositions shall be read over to and signed respectively by the witnesses who shall have been examined, and shall also be signed by the Court.

Charge.

19.—After the examination of all the witnesses on the part of the prosecution the Court shall read to the accused the whole of the depositions taken against him and shall say to him these words or words to the like effect:—“Having heard the evidence do you wish to say anything in answer to the charge? You are not obliged to say anything unless you desire to do so, but whatever you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence against you on your trial.”

20.—The Court may at any stage in the hearing of any case adjourn the hearing of the same to a certain place and time to be then appointed and in the meantime the Court may, Adjournment.

- (1.) Suffer the defendant to go at large, or
- (2.) Commit him to prison or a place of security, or

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for the information of subscribers to the above Fund, that the amount collected—£149 11s. 6d., together with interest, which up to the end of September last, amounted to £13 3s. 4d.—remains deposited in the Government Saving's Bank.

The greater part of this sum was originally contributed for the special purpose of the establishment of a Cottage Hospital; but the Secretary of State not having felt himself able to sanction the the necessary expenditure from Public Funds, it has not been possible to proceed with this scheme.

The Admiralty have it in contemplation to erect a hospital at Navy Point for admission to which civilians will be eligible. It is therefore deemed advisable to await the development of this scheme before determining whether the sum now in the Saving's Bank can be employed in the partial endowment of a bed or must be devoted to any other use. The Government will however be pleased to receive any suggestions that may be offered and Subscribers are invited to notify to the Colonial Secretary any object to which they would wish their contributions to be devoted.

12.—Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to authorise the Governor to take a part only of any house, building or manufactory but where a part of the land on which any house, building or manufactory stands is required for the service of the Colony it shall be lawful for the owner of such house, building or manufactory to require the Governor to take the whole house, building or manufactory.

(ii) In any such proceedings the arbitrators or umpire shall decide upon all separate and conflicting claims that may be made in respect of any such lands so taken and appropriated as aforesaid and upon the amount of compensation to be paid in respect thereof, and in the event of there being any mortgage or other charge affecting such land or any part thereof, shall direct the amount of compensation which ought to be paid to the several persons interested therein, what and in what manner notices shall be given or served to enable all persons interested to protect their rights, and shall further appoint the time and place at which they or he will sit to hear and determine the matter.

26.—The decision of the arbitrators or umpire respecting compensation or in the case of disputed or conflicting interests or title as aforesaid shall be final and conclusive as respects all persons who have appeared and claimed or on whose behalf any person having authority to that effect has claimed any land or interest therein; but it shall be lawful for persons who have not appeared or claimed, or on whose behalf no claim has been made as aforesaid to do so at any time within one year from the final decision. And in all cases where compensation has been awarded (except where a valid title has been shown to the satisfaction of the arbitrators or umpire) payment thereof shall be postponed until the said period of one year shall have elapsed from the date of the final decision and shall then upon application by petition of any person making claim to the same be paid over to the person or persons who shall then appear by the decision of the arbitrators or umpire to have the best right thereto, and such payment shall as concerns the Colonial Government operate as a complete discharge and acquittance of such compensation and of all claims in respect of such land or any interest therein, but shall not hinder any subsequent proceedings at the instance of any person having or alleging better right thereto as against the person to whom such payment may have been made.

27.—For the protection of persons acting in execution of this Ordinance, all actions and prosecutions to be commenced against the Colonial Secretary or person authorized by him, or his workmen, servants or agents for anything done by him or them in pursuance of this Ordinance shall be commenced within six calendar months after the act committed and not otherwise.

Notice in writing of such action and of the cause or causes thereof shall be given to the defendant one calendar month at least before the commencement of the action.

In any such action the defendant may plead the general issue and give this Ordinance and the special matter in evidence in any trial to be had thereupon.

No plaintiff shall recover in any such action if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action brought, or if a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court by or on behalf of the defendant after such action brought, and notice of such payment has been given to the plaintiff or his solicitor.

If judgment shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall become nonsuit or discontinue any such action, the defendant shall be entitled to his full costs of suit to be taxed as between solicitor and client and have the like remedy for the same as any defendant hath by law in other cases.
