(a) the aggregate amount of the allowances, referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of clause 3 of this Agreement, and paid to designated officers less the sum agreed by the said two Governments as being equivalent to the proceeds of taxation received by the Government of the Falkland Islands on the inducement allowance referred to in paragraph (a) of clause 3 of this Agreement and paid to designated officers;

(b) one half of the aggregate amount paid by the Government of the Falkland Islands in providing for designated officers the passages referred to in paragraph (c) of clause 3 of this Agreement;

5. (1) On or before the first day of October in each year the Government of the Falkland Islands will provide the Government of the United Kingdom with such information, including information concerning any variation in the number of designated officers which results from the establishment requirements of the Government of the Falkland Islands, as the Government of the United Kingdom may require to calculate the amounts payable by the Government of the United Kingdom under clause 2 of this Agreement during the ensuing financial year of the Government of the United Kingdom.
- (2) The Government of the Falkland Islands will, whenever requested so to do by the Government of the United Kingdom, supply to the Government of the United Kingdom such accounts and other information in connection with the operation of this Agreement as may be specified in such request.
6. The Government of the Falkland Islands will consult the Government of the United Kingdom before effecting any changes in policy which might affect the recruitment, terms of service and numbers of designated officers so as to vary the amounts reimbursable by the Government of the United Kingdom under clause 2 of this Agreement.
7. Subject to the provisions of clauses 5 and 6 of this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall affect the right of the Government of the Falkland Islands to vary its dispositions or requirements of officers in its public service as it sees fit.
8. This Agreement shall terminate, unless some other date is agreed between the Government of the Falkland Islands and the Government of the United Kingdom on the 31st day of March, 1971:

- and
- (ii) the termination of this Agreement shall not affect the liability of the Government of the United Kingdom to make the reimbursements in respect of pensions referred to in paragraph (e) of clause 2 of this Agreement.
9. This Agreement shall come into operation on the appointed day and may be cited as the Overseas Service (Falkland Islands) Agreement 1961.

The Evidence (Falkland Islands) Order 1962

Made 28th November 1962

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November 1962

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas Her Majesty in Council is satisfied upon consideration of a report from the Lord Chancellor and the Secretary of State for the Colonies that, having regard to the law of the Colony of the Falkland Islands as to the recognition therein of public registers of the United Kingdom as authentic records and as to the proof of the contents of such registers and other matters by means of duly authenticated certificates issued by public officers in the United Kingdom, it is desirable in the interests of reciprocity to make with respect to public registers of the Colony of the Falkland Islands and certificates issued by public officers in or in respect of the said Colony such provision as is hereinafter mentioned :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in the exercise of the powers conferred on Her by the evidence (Foreign, Dominion and Colonial Documents) Act 1933 (a) and all other powers in that behalf in Her vested is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The registers of the Colony of the Falkland Islands specified in the first column of the Schedule to this Order shall be deemed to be public registers kept under the authority of the law of the Colony and recognised by the courts thereof as authentic records, and to be documents of such a public nature as to be admissible as evidence of the matters regularly recorded therein.

2. For the purposes of the preceding Article all matters recorded in the register shall be deemed, until the contrary is proved, to be regularly recorded.

3. Subject to any requirements of rules of court, a document which purports to be issued in the Colony of the Falkland Islands as an official copy of an entry in a register specified in the first column of the Schedule to this Order and which purports to be authenticated by an officer of the said Colony in the manner specified in that Schedule, shall, without evidence as to the custody of the register or of inability to produce it and without any further or other proof, be received as evidence that the register contains such an entry.

4. Nothing in this Order shall be taken to prohibit or restrict the admission in evidence of any copy, extract, summary, certificate or other document whatsoever which, apart from the provisions of this Order, would be admissible as evidence of any particular matter, or to affect any power which, otherwise than by virtue of this Order, is exercisable by any court with respect to the admission of documents in evidence.

5. (1) This Order may be cited as the Evidence (Falkland Islands) Order 1962.

(2) This Order extends to all parts of the United Kingdom.

The Honourable J. R. Rowlands.

The Meeting opened with prayers read by the Reverend E. Thornley.

2. The Minutes of the Meetings of Legislative Council held on 12th – 16th April, 1962 and 12th May, 1962 were confirmed.

3. The Honourable the Colonial Secretary, by command, laid on the table the following papers –

4. The Honourable the Colonial Treasurer seconded by the Honourable the Colonial Secretary moved the adoption of the following Resolution –

“BE IT RESOLVED that the Report of the Standing Finance Committee for the period February, 1962 to September, 1962, be adopted.”

The Resolution was passed.

5. The Bill “Further to amend the Firearms Ordinance” was introduced by the Honourable the Colonial Secretary who said –

“Your Excellency.

This Bill deals with the question of exemptions from the need to hold a fire-arms certificate to possess fire-arms as defined in the Ordinance, that is rifles, revolvers etc., and a gun licence to use or carry any form of gun and seeks to extend the exemptions given by the Ordinance. The Ordinance, as it is at present worded, gives exemption to members of the Falkland Islands Defence Force when carrying fire-arms for target shooting only but the present Ordinance extends this so as to give them exemption whenever they are carrying fire-arms in the course of their duty. It also exempts from the need for a fire-arms certificate or gun licence as the case may be, Government officers who possess guns or fire-arms as ordered by their Head of Department for Government purposes. It also exempts the F.I.D.F. Rifle Club and also the members of the Girls' Life Brigade and Boys' Brigade when they are using guns or fire-arms at a range under the supervision of officers. There is a small anomaly in the present Ordinance in that penalties are prescribed for misuse of a firearm but not for misuse of any other kind of gun and this anomaly is remedied in the Bill.

When the Bill was first drafted the term “miniature rifle” was used but it was pointed out that this was incorrect and consequently wherever the word “miniature” occurred we wished to substitute the words “small bore”. But unfortunately owing to a small typing error in the Bill before the House the word “miniature” does still appear in one place and I propose to seek permission to alter that mistake when the Bill reaches the Committee stage. I beg to move that the Bill be read a first time.”

The Honourable J. T. Clement seconded and the Bill was read a first time.

On further motion made and seconded the Bill was read a second time and committed.

Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 5 and Clause 4 amended by substituting the words “small bore” for the word “miniature” were agreed to, likewise the Enacting Clause and Title.

The Council resumed and the Bill was read a third time and passed.

6. Introducing the "Supplementary Appropriation Bill (1961-62)," the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer said —

"Your Excellency.

The title of this Bill is self explanatory. As the result of additional funds having been voted and utilised during the year the amounts provided in the Appropriation Ordinance have been exceeded on four Heads of Expenditure.

The object of the Bill is a formality to give covering legal authority for this particular expenditure and I beg to move that the Bill be read a first time."

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary seconded and the Bill was read accordingly.

The Bill was then read a second time and in Committee Clauses 1 and 2, the Enacting Clause, Preamble, Title and Schedule were agreed to and stood part of the Bill. The Bill was read a third time and passed.

7. The Honourable the Colonial Treasurer introduced the Bill "To ratify and confirm the Overseas Service (Falkland Islands) Agreement, 1961, and to provide for matters connected therewith", saying —

"Your Excellency.

The object of this Bill is to ratify the agreement between the Government of this Colony and that of the United Kingdom wherein the latter undertook to give certain financial assistance to the Colony in relation to the engagement of staff from overseas.

Very briefly this assistance falls within the categories of salaries (where something greater than the local rates is required to attract suitable recruits) passages and education allowances. These forms of assistance are available to other overseas territories and the principal object is to permit the continued employment of overseas officers until suitable replacements are available from local recruitment. The scheme has a life of ten years in the first instance and this period, no doubt, is considered sufficiently long for most of the territories concerned to become largely self sufficient to their demand for professional and technical staff.

That such a situation is ever likely to be the case in this Colony seems hardly worth a second thought but the agreement does provide valuable assistance towards the cost, increasing rather than decreasing, of providing staff from overseas.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary seconded the Bill and it was read a second time and subsequently passed through all its stages.

8. The Honourable the Colonial Secretary moved the first reading of the Bill "Further to amend the Road Traffic Ordinance", stating —

"Your Excellency.

The object of this Bill is to enable the holder of a United Kingdom driving licence to use that licence in the Falkland Islands for six months. This privilege is granted by the United Kingdom in respect of driving licences granted in the Colony and it is suggested that it is suitable that we should grant a similar privilege to the holders of United Kingdom driving licences. I beg to move that the Bill be read a first time."

The Honourable L. Bedford seconded and the Bill was read a first time. On further motion made and seconded the Bill received a second reading and Council went into Committee to consider the individual Clauses. Clauses 1 and 2, the Enacting Clause and Title were agreed to and on resumption the Bill was read a third time and passed.

9. The Honourable the Colonial Secretary introducing the "Bill to provide for the immunity of certain classes of persons from the jurisdiction of the Courts of the Colony" said —

"Your Excellency.

The Antarctic Treaty Order in Council in July, 1961 provided in accordance with the terms of the Antarctic Treaty that observers, exchanged scientists and their staff should not be liable to the jurisdiction of any Court in the Falkland Islands or the Dependencies in respect of any act committed by them when in the Antarctic. When the British Antarctic Territory was constituted the Order in Council which I mentioned previously was revoked and instead of that Order in Council the British Antarctic Treaty Order in Council was passed. Naturally this Order in Council only dealt with the British Antarctic Territory and could not deal with the jurisdiction of Courts in the Falkland Islands and Dependencies. Although it seems very unlikely that the case of a person being brought before a court in the Falkland Islands or in the Dependencies in respect of an act committed in British Antarctica would ever arise, yet to conform with the Treaty it is necessary for us to give the same immunity from the jurisdiction of Courts in the Falkland Islands and Dependencies as was given by the previous Order in Council. There was also provision in the 1961 Order in Council for the Governor to grant exemptions from the provisions of any enactment in force in the Colony or its Dependencies to such observers and others in respect of baggage, instruments, etc., to enable them to carry out their functions in Antarctica and it is necessary to grant the same exemptions in respect of the Falkland Islands and its Dependencies as was given by the previous Antarctic Treaty Order in Council. I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Honourable the Senior Medical Officer seconded and the Bill received its first reading. On further motion made and seconded the Bill was read a second time. His Excellency declared Council to be in Committee and Clauses 1 to 4, the Enacting Clause and Title were agreed.

The Bill was then read a third time and passed.

10. Moving the first reading of the Bill "Further to amend the British Nationality Ordinance" the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer remarked —

"Your Excellency.

The object of this Bill is to bring the fees in connection with naturalisation into line with those payable if the application is made in the United Kingdom where increases have recently been introduced.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill".

The motion was seconded by the Honourable G. C. R. Bonner. The Bill was read a second time and subsequently passed through all its stages.

11. A Bill "Further to amend the Application of Enactments Ordinance, 1954" was introduced by the Honourable H. Bennett, who said —
"Your Excellency.

Part I of the Administration of Justice Act, 1956 (which relates to the Admiralty Jurisdiction of the English Courts) was recently applied to the Colony.

Since its application the Secretary of State has drawn our attention to two very technical defects in the Act as modified in its application to the Colony.

The Secretary of State points out —

- (a) that questions which fall to be determined under international law should be left to the decision of the Secretary of State and not delegated to the Governor;
- (b) that jurisdiction to hear and determine matters covering ships and shipping should be retained by the High Court of Justice in England and not given to the Supreme Court here.

Opportunity is taken to correct two small drafting errors. The word "may" is deleted from subsection (4) of section 3 and the words "No Court in the Colony" substituted for the words "No Court in England and Wales" in the modification of section 6 of the Act.

The object of this Bill is to remedy the defects and correct the two small drafting errors.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Honourable A. B. Monk seconded and the Bill was read a first time. The Bill was read a second time and passed through all its stages in Committee without amendment.

Council resumed and the Bill was read a third time and passed.

12. The Honourable H. Bennett seconded by the Honourable J. Rowlands moved the first reading of the second Bill "Further to amend the Application of Enactments Ordinance, 1954," and said —
"Your Excellency.

This Bill is designed to apply the Adoption Act of 1960 and the Suicide Act of 1961 to the Colony.

1. The Adoption Act, 1961, although quite short requires reference to earlier laws in order to explain the reason for its enactment. The other Acts to which I may refer have been applied to the Colony.

The Legitimacy Act, 1926, for the first time in English law, recognised to a limited extent the principle of legitimization by subsequent marriage.

The Adoption Act, 1958, provided that where any person adopted by his father or mother alone, has subsequently become a legitimated person, under the provisions of the Legitimacy Act, 1926, on the marriage of his or her father and mother the Court may on the application of the parties concerned, revoke the Adoption Order.

The Legitimacy Act, 1959, repeals the provisions of the Legitimacy Act, 1926, which excludes the operation of that Act in cases of an illegitimate person whose father or mother was married to a third person at the time of the birth, thus making such person legitimate on the subsequent marriage of his or her parents.

The Adoption Act, 1960, (the Act being considered) makes provision (similar to the provision of the Adoption Act, 1958) for the revocation of an adoption order where a person legitimated by the Legitimacy Act, 1959, had been adopted by his or her father or mother before the commencement of the Act of 1959.

2. The Suicide Act, 1961. Suicide was a felony at common law. Section 1 of the Suicide Act, 1961, abrogates that rule of law and suicide is no longer a crime, but under the provisions of section 2 of the Act, a person who aids, abets, counsels or procures the suicide or attempted suicide of another is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 14 years. To be convicted as an aider and abettor a person must know all the circumstances which constitute the offence; whether he or she realises that the circumstances constitute an offence is immaterial.

Under the provisions of section 4 of the Homicide Act, 1957 (which applies to the Colony) if in furtherance of a "suicide pact" a person killed himself or herself the survivor was guilty of manslaughter. That provision is repealed by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Suicide Act, 1961, and in such a case the survivor would not be guilty of that offence, but a person who in pursuance of a suicide pact, kills another, or is a party to that other being killed by a third person, is still guilty of manslaughter under the Homicide Act, 1957.

The enactment of this Bill will bring our law into line with the English Law in connection with these matters.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Bill was read a first time and no objections being raised it was read a second time. In committee Clauses 1 and 2, the Enacting Clause, Title and Schedule were agreed to.

The Council resumed and the Bill received a third reading and passed.

13. In moving the first reading of the Bill "To amend the Non-Contributory Old Age Pensions Ordinance" the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer said —

"Your Excellency.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Ordinance where it has been found inadequate. It was appreciated at the outset that because of its rather unique nature and the consequent lack of guidance from similar legislation the provisions of the Ordinance might not be sufficiently broad to benefit all those elderly people whose circumstances were receiving particular attention. Two such groups have emerged and this Bill now proposes to extend to them the small but useful benefits of the scheme.

The first amendment is to section 7 (2) where the present requirement is that an applicant for a pension must have been ordinarily resident in the Colony since 1st July, 1952. This, of course, excludes anyone who has spent sufficient time between then and now out of the Colony to disqualify him (or her) from being regarded as ordinarily resident, and a person who was here then and has now returned after a few years elsewhere cannot be granted a pension. It is proposed to amend the wording of section 7 (2) to remove the element of continuous residence and to make the residential qualification for a pension depend solely upon having been living here on 1st July, 1952. As the pension is not payable during any period spent away from the Colony this does not lead to departures from the fundamental objects of the scheme.

The second amendment is to provide pensions for widows whose husbands were dead before the introduction of the Old Age Pensions Fund in 1952 or, if alive at that time, were excluded by age from contributing. The amendment provides that widows in this group may qualify for a pension provided they themselves were 65 or over on the 1st July, 1961, the day the non-contributory scheme came into operation.

The cost of these amendments will be small. I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Honourable R. V. Goss seconded the motion and the Bill passed to its second reading. The various Clauses were considered in Committee and agreed to and the Bill was read a third time and passed.

14. Introducing the Bill "Further to amend the Income Tax Ordinance" the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer said —

"Your Excellency.

This Bill seeks to amend the section dealing with penalties for incorrect returns of income. The present wording of the section has remained unchanged since 1939 and is somewhat out of date in both design and effect. For example the maximum fine that can be imposed for a false declaration under the Income Tax Ordinance itself is £100 and however adequate this might have been as a deterrent in 1939 it would be quite inadequate nowadays to discourage anybody who contemplated a deliberate fraud. There is, of course, the Perjury Act under which a false declaration would be charged but it is felt that details of penalties printed on the form, and the publicity that could be given to amendments, might be far greater deterrents than those that are not generally known. It is earnestly hoped to avoid court actions of this nature.

The proposed new sections 85 and 85A provide for offences to be classified according to their nature and punishable according to their nature and according to the amount of tax involved. The first part of the Bill deals with offences where incorrect information is provided without reasonable excuse or, in other words, where the element of fraud is either absent or not apparent. Here the maximum penalty remains at £100 except that double the amount of tax under dispute may also be added. Imprisonment as a penalty for the offence is removed but may be imposed in default of payment of the fine.

The second part of the Bill provides for penalties where there is a deliberate attempt to defraud the revenue and here the maximum penalty is increased from £100 to £500 and treble the amount of tax for which the offender is liable. Imprisonment is an alternative penalty and the maximum period is increased from 6 months to three years.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The motion was seconded by the Honourable the Colonial Secretary. The Bill was read a second time and passed through its Committee stages without amendment. On further motion made and seconded the Bill was read a third time and passed.

15. The second Bill "Further to amend the Income Tax Ordinance" was also introduced by the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer and seconded by the Honourable the Colonial Secretary. In his address the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer said —

"Your Excellency.

This Bill introduces the second stage of the new taxation policy that was outlined in some detail at the meeting of this Council on 6th February of this year. It is a comparatively simple piece of legislation providing for the payment of a further income tax to be called Profits Tax where the income is derived from a trade or business. The rate is to be 2/- in the £ unless the profits concerned are less than £12,000 in which case abatement equal to one-fifth of the difference between the assessable profit and £12,000 will be permitted. Special conditions limiting the deduction for directors fees in director controlled companies are included and where the tax is imposed on a partnership or individual the option of being taxed at 2/- or 1/6d., with abatement where the profits do not exceed £12,000 is available. This provision is designed to remove unfair tax burdens from partnerships and individuals where deductions in respect of payments made to the owners — what might be called the equivalent of directors fees — are not allowed when ascertaining the taxable profits.

The deductions provided for in sections 15, 16, 17 and 19 are not to be allowed for the purposes of ascertaining the profits assessable to profits tax.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Bill was read a first time and on further motion made and seconded, was read a second time. In Committee, Clauses 1 and 2 were agreed as were the Enacting Clause and Title.

The Bill was then read a third time and passed.

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary moved and the Honourable the Senior Medical Officer seconded that the House be adjourned sine die.

Before adjourning the Meeting, His Excellency thanked Honourable Members for their attendance at a time of the year when he knew it was not very convenient and wished Camp members good flying weather so that their return would not be too long delayed.

Council adjourned sine die.

9. (1) The Governor may by Order in Council direct that this Ordinance shall apply to any part of the Commonwealth outside the United Kingdom and to judgments obtained in the superior courts of such parts of the Commonwealth in like manner as it applies to foreign countries and judgments obtained in the superior courts of foreign countries, and on any such order being made, this Part of this Ordinance shall have effect accordingly and the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Ordinance shall cease to have effect except in relation to those parts of the Commonwealth to which it extends at the date of the Order.

(2) If at any time after the Governor has directed as aforesaid an Order in Council is made under section 3 of this Ordinance extending this Part of this Ordinance to any Part of the Commonwealth to which the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Ordinance extends as aforesaid, then, in relation to that part of the Commonwealth —

(ii) the fact that a judgment was given before the coming into operation of the Order in Council did not prevent it from being a judgment to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, but the time limited for the registration of a judgment were, in the case of a judgment so given, twelve months from the date of the judgment or such longer period as may be allowed by the Supreme Court;

(iii) any judgment registered in the Supreme Court under the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Ordinance before the coming into operation of the Order in Council had been registered in that Court under this Part of this Ordinance and anything done in relation thereto under the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Ordinance had been done under this Part of this Ordinance of the corresponding rules of court or other provisions applicable to the said Part.

(3) References in this section to any Part of the Commonwealth outside the United Kingdom shall be construed as including references to any territories which are under Her Majesty's protection and to any territories administered by the Government of any part of the Commonwealth under the trusteeship of the United Nations.”.

2. The Minutes of the Meeting of Legislative Council held on 28th November, 1962 were confirmed.

3. His Excellency delivered the following address to Council —

"Honourable Members of Legislative Council.

One of the most encouraging pieces of news we have had for a long time was that at the March sales 2,519 bales of Falkland Island wool were sold at an average price of 57.38d. a lb. This compares very favourably with the March sales in 1962 at which 2,147 bales were sold at an average price of 50.6d. a lb. The next sales are due early next month and, as usual, we can expect a certain fall, but it seems clear that our overall average for the year will show a good increase over last year's average price for the whole clip of 47d. a lb.

This increase in price is particularly welcome, because after our very mild winter in 1962 there was a much heavier clip than usual, and exports this year are likely to be a quarter of a million pounds in weight more than last year. I hope very much that these good results may encourage farms to set something aside for pasture improvement schemes. Two years ago I quoted Mr. Wannop, who said that he hoped that the pioneering efforts by enthusiasts will not only continue but will have imitators. These efforts have continued at Roy Cove and Hill Cove in particular, and the results on the ground are impressive. I am sure what these farms have done and hope to achieve will be discussed at the forthcoming meeting of the Sheep Owners Association, and other farms may perhaps be inspired to follow their lead. You will remember that Mr. Wannop also recommended that we should employ a trained investigator on grassland improvement, and you will see that provision has been included in next year's estimates for his appointment. Arrangements are proceeding to recruit a good man and Mr Wannop is assisting in this.

I will deal later with how the improved price of wool may affect our future financial position, but now I will turn to some of the activities of various Government departments during the past year.

To take Education first, we were fortunate that the Dorset education authorities agreed to a visit by their County psychologist Mr. R. J. M. Taylor to the Falkland Islands. Mr. Taylor has also had extensive teaching experience, and during his time in the Colony from 26th September to 2nd November 1962, he was able not only to see the Stanley and Darwin schools, but also to cover a good deal of the Camp. His conclusions were that the children in the Falkland Islands have the normal range of ability found in England, the average level being that of a child from the remoter rural areas in Britain. Mr. Taylor felt that our population would never justify the setting up of a system of full secondary education, but there would always be a few children of superior ability who would benefit from the type of education which is not available in the Colony. He thought we should not be too rigid over the number of scholarships that are awarded each year, and he emphasised that scholarships should only be awarded when it is clear that the children are able to undertake grammar school education successfully, provided they apply themselves to their studies. He recommended that scholarships should be awarded in the first instance for a two year period only, because in that time it becomes clear whether children are going to work successfully or not. If they are not, the scholarship should end, but on the other hand, if they are taking full advantage of the education they are receiving, scholarships should continue as long as justified. This could mean, that instead of the normal period of three years for which scholarships are now awarded, they would be extended to five years, and in some cases even to seven years. Such a long period away from home, and perhaps without seeing his parents, would not be good for a child, and Government therefore proposes that if scholarship children continue at school in Dorset for longer than two years, they should be flown home to the Falklands at government expense every two years.

Mr. Taylor was critical of the school buildings and equipment, particularly of the senior school in Stanley, where, he said, a new school is needed on a more spacious site. Steps have already been taken to improve equipment on his recommendations, and this policy will continue. Standing Finance Committee approved expenditure of the sum of £500 for this purpose during the current financial year, and next year estimates for school materials have been increased by £500 over the 1962/63 estimate. Necessary though a new senior school is, that does not mean that good work cannot be done in the present school. We must keep a new senior school very much in mind, but the more immediate need would seem to be to extend the Darwin school to accommodate more boarders. As Honourable Members will recollect, I have referred to this before, and we hope to obtain assistance for the extension from the Colonial Development & Welfare Act which last month was extended to 1966. The main problem at Darwin is the water supply, which is now barely adequate for the school, and would be quite insufficient if the school is to be extended. Investigations into how to improve the water supply have been proceeding, but the problem is not an easy one to solve, and I feel we might save money in the long run by getting a water engineer out from England to investigate conditions and draw up a plan.

The ideal, of course, would be that all Camp children from the age of eight should attend the Darwin school, but for a variety of reasons this is not a practical proposition, and we have to consider how best our educational system can be adapted to the needs of the community. The comparison of children in the Camp between the years 1953 and 1962 is interesting. The 1962 census revealed that, compared with 1953, there are now 40 per cent more children under school age in the East Falkland and 20 per cent more in the West Falkland. With these numbers in mind, it seems that something more will be needed than the extension of the Darwin school and the continued employment of Camp teachers, and that at the main settlements there may well be sufficient children to justify a settlement school, where children can receive continuous education uninterrupted by the teacher having to visit other farms and outside houses. Government is at present considering a scheme whereby it would give assistance to farms to employ a bookkeeper/teacher. He would be the employee of the farm and Government would pay a sum to the farm for his teaching services. He would have to be approved by the Department as a suitable person to teach, and would have to put in a fixed number of hours each week as a teacher. The plan is not without its difficulties, for farm employees move from one farm to another and a family with four or five children leaving a farm could cause a dramatic drop in the number of children attending the farm school; but I feel that if a satisfactory plan can be worked out, farm employees might think twice before moving from a farm where their children are receiving continuous education, and that this plan would be of benefit not only to parents and children but also to the farms. It might well be, too, that arrangements could be made whereby children from outside houses on the farm could obtain accommodation at the settlement during the week, and be able to visit their parents during the weekend.

I do not think that these plans will mean that Camp teachers will disappear, because there will always be the smaller islands with only a very few children, and the more distant outside houses where parents do not wish to be separated from their children, although in this question of separation I would urge parents to think not only of themselves but what is best for their children. Whatever plans Government may have, in the long run the education of children depends on the fullest co-operation from their parents. Without this no system of education can succeed. Our Camp teachers and the Voluntary Service Organisation teachers are doing excellent work, but their task is not always made easy for them. The great weakness of this system is its lack of continuity and the long gaps which occur between the teacher's visits, and unless parents co-operate and take a real interest in the education of their children very little can be achieved.

As Honourable Members are aware, we have very close ties with the Dorset education authorities and Mr. Taylor's visit has made these even closer. He has seen conditions out here for himself and is taking a keen personal interest in all our children now at Dorset schools. We have received good reports of the progress these children are making, and the reports on one of them, the youngest ever to be given a scholarship, are quite outstanding.

We have still vacancies for teachers, but I think the vacancy which has been felt most during the year has been that of the Darwin doctor. Since Dr. O'Connor had to leave last December because of his wife's most unfortunate illness, we have not succeeded in recruiting a medical officer for Darwin. At one time, two candidates looked hopeful, but they eventually withdrew, and it has become perfectly clear that we cannot hope to recruit doctors on our present scale of pay. I shall deal with this later in my speech, but Government has been advised of the rate at which it is thought a doctor might be attracted to come to the Falklands, and this rate is now being offered. You may have seen that in March of this year the Prime Minister announced that the British Government had accepted the advice of the Standing Review Body on Doctors and Dentists Remunerations, and that a general increase of 14 per cent would be paid with effect from the 1st of April.

The Medical Department has had a busy year. The mild winter brought with it a respiratory virus infection, which affected many in Stanley and the Camp, and which is still hanging about. 168 patients were admitted to hospital, and 19 major and 9 minor operations were performed. Our dentists have visited almost all Camp settlements, and I am very glad to hear that much more interest is being taken by parents in their children's teeth. The dentists examined almost all the children in the settlements they visited.

Up to the 6th of June, the Air Department had flown in 113 passengers in need of medical attention, and to this date also 2,571 passengers had been carried during the year. Our two aircraft were in service throughout the period, except when they were withdrawn in turn to undergo overhaul for the renewal of certificates of airworthiness. There was only one occasion during the year when it was possible to announce that no flying would be carried out, because there were no bookings on hand. 766 hours were flown and 1,558 landings were made. The luggage scales installed in the hangar have paid dividends, for the amount of excess luggage carried during the year amounted to 7,909 lbs. The overhead travelling hoist, which has been installed in the hangar, has proved of great value when our engineers are dismantling and reassembling the aircraft.

Freight carried by the aircraft amounted to 5,944 lbs.; but our main freight carrier, the "Philomel", I am glad to say, has had a more successful year than last. Up to the 31st of May she made a total of 23 voyages, steaming a distance of 4,475 miles. Of these voyages, four were to the far West Falklands, five to Falkland Sound ports, and 14 to East Falkland ports. She was out of commission for quite a time in September and October, when it was found that the cheeks and bolts supporting her rudder shoe had become badly eaten away owing to galvanic action. With the help of Mr. Ross, the Falkland Islands Company's diver, the shoe was removed and a new rudder shoe and supporting cheeks were finally secured in position with 18 bolts on the 18th of November. During the latter part of January, cathodic anodes were fitted to "Philomel's" rudder, and on the 12th of March divers from H.M.S. "Protector" examined "Philomel's" stern assembly and secured further bolts. They reported favourably on the condition of the bolts which Mr. Ross had fitted. I am reluctant to make any prophecies, but it does seem that these anodes should go a long way towards overcoming the constant trouble we have had with galvanic action, and since March, "Philomel" has completed three months of trouble-free service. Government is pursuing enquires on what it would cost to replace "Philomel" with a new vessel, and consideration is also being given to the construction of a suitable slipway to permit regular examinations and repair work to be carried out.

The Public Works Department has, very rightly, concentrated on maintenance during the year. Money spent on maintenance is to my mind always money well spent, but with the very important proviso that if maintenance is not properly carried out it is money wasted. It is no good putting a beautiful coat of paint on rotten wood. I can assure Honourable Members that maintenance is being properly done, but the state of some Government property is such that what may appear on a casual examination to be a fairly minor job may turn into a major one if repairs are to be lasting. Again with the object of improving maintenance, arrangements have now been made for all Government vehicles to come in for service at regularly scheduled intervals.

Of the major jobs, one of the largest was to construct new foundations for the oil tanks which you can see are now going up. These may not be very beautiful, but at least they will ensure that we do not run the risk of running out of oil, and it will be possible to convert some of the larger Government buildings to oil firing. I am afraid that oil firing will always be more expensive than peat for the small household, but there may be some who would rather pay £30 or £40 a year more for oil firing, and at least the conversion of the larger Government buildings will make more peat available locally.

Householders, formerly supplied with water from the present high-level tank, have always suffered from very poor pressure, and this should be very considerably improved when the new tank is erected and connected to the system. It was originally planned to put this tank up near the present one, but it was found that this would not have any significant effect on the pressure, and it was therefore decided to put the tank to the east of Sapper Hill and connect it to the present mains.

We have talked for a long time about improving the P.W.D. store and putting up a new one, but one of the troubles has been that so much junk, if I may so call it, had been accumulated that it was difficult to see what actual store space was available. Throughout the year, whenever the opportunity offered, old unserviceable stores, some of them dating back to pre-war days, have been moved, and it appears that the present stores building in the P.W.D. yard, with some modifications to its interior, can cope with the ordinary everyday stores, and that arrangements can be made to store goods, which are not needed regularly, elsewhere. There is an adequate building for heavy bulk stores at the old wireless station, provided that arrangements could be made with the Admiralty for P.W.D. to use it. This would be very much cheaper than building a new store. The only snag is that it is some way from the centre of the town, but it only takes about ten minutes to reach it by lorry.

Honourable Members will see in the Estimates that provision is made for the appointment of a Supplies Officer during the coming financial year. Mr. Campbell, our present storekeeper, who has given us excellent service since 1947, will shortly be retiring. It is intended that the scope of the P.W.D. stores should be increased, and the new Supplies Officer will be responsible for the ordering, cataloguing and accounting not only of all P.W.D. stores, but also of stores such as those ordered by the Education Department for Darwin. The Power & Electrical stores would also be moved from the Power Station and become the responsibility of the Supplies Officer. He will be able to relieve the Superintendent of Public Works and his staff of work which takes up much of their time, and this will apply also to the Education and Power & Electrical departments.

In March and April Mr. O'Reilly of the Road Research Laboratory visited the Colony, to investigate the possibility of building a road system in the East and West Falkland. His report is awaited so I can make no comment at this time, but it is perfectly clear that the building of any road system would be an extremely costly business.

The Power & Electrical Department has experienced no operational troubles during the year and the output for the year is estimated at 1,120,000 units. Replacements to the overhead power cables were erected along Brandon Road and Pioneer Row, and many minor improvements were made elsewhere. Additional street lighting units have been installed in many areas, and indeed one visitor from the Camp remarked, when I was driving him down by the Memorial, that it looked like Rio. The Power Station is as immaculately kept as ever, and is far and away the best that I have seen in any Colony in which I have served.

The Post Office has had a good year financially and the radio commemorative issue brought in £9,950. Sales of the definitive issue, the birds of the Falkland Islands, are still good and the total revenue from sale of stamps, including the commemorative issue, is likely to be £16,000 for the year. I was hoping that at this meeting I would be able to tell Honourable Members that there had been no violation of Falkland Islands mails during the year, but unfortunately there were minor violations in March and April, five parcels in all being damaged. I am happy to say, however, that the last mail which the "Darwin" brought from Montevideo was received intact. In November last, the Superintendent paid an official call on the Director of the Uruguayan Postal Services in Montevideo and discussed matters of interest to both administrations, in particular the speedy transit of Falkland Islands airmails routed through Montevideo. The discussions were most cordial, and have resulted in a considerable improvement in the service. Several airmails have since been received here in record time, that is five days from London.

Honourable Members will recall that last year it was intended that the Gymnasium should be taken over by the Post Office for use as a parcels sorting centre, and also to accommodate staff from the Wireless Station and the R/T Station. This proposal has been reconsidered. The main need is to take parcels sorting away from the Council Chamber, and this can be done in the gym without much extra work, and while making the gym available for other activities except at a time when the mail comes in. Government has, therefore, decided not to proceed with the plan as originally envisaged, but the despatch and receipt of telegrams has been expedited by a land line between the Post Office and the Wireless Station. Telegrams for despatch are typed on a machine at the Post Office and received on paper tape at the Wireless Station ready for despatch; similarly, telegrams received at the Wireless Station are put in a machine, which produces the words of the message on paper tape at the Post Office, ready to be pasted on to the telegraph form and delivered.

I am glad to say that the supply of tapes from the B. B. C. transcription service has improved, and more variety in programmes has been possible, although new serials are still difficult to come by. "The Archers" remain as popular as ever, and I believe that some people, who did not think much of this programme when it began, are now regular listeners.

Mr. S. P. Atkins, the senior operator at the Wireless Station, retired on pension last month after 40 years service. He joined the department in 1923 as a messenger in the Post Office, later going to South Georgia where he studied radio and became a wireless operator in 1929. From 1930 to 1950 he alternated between Stanley and South Georgia Wireless Stations, eventually settling in Stanley, where he served for the past 12 years. He was a most efficient operator, and set a fine example to the younger men who worked under him during the years. His departure from the Falklands will be a great loss to Government and to the community, and he takes with him our very best wishes for a long and happy retirement in New Zealand, where he will re-join his family later this year.

Mr. Alex Mercer, who retired in 1960 and re-joined the department in a temporary capacity in 1961, has also left us on final retirement. He too takes with him the best wishes of his many friends and colleagues here, where he will be long remembered for his untiring work and ingenuity in the field of radio and telecommunications.

From January, Sergeant Williams carried on most efficiently as Officer in Charge of the Police, until the arrival of Mr. Gray in December. During the year 79 vehicles were imported, making the total number of vehicles now registered 731. Of these, 400 are registered in Stanley alone. You have seen the new white lines which have now been put down in many places, but these in themselves will not prevent accidents. 14 traffic accidents were reported during the year and I am glad to say that no persons were injured. We do not register bicycles, but I am sure that many more children are riding bicycles than ever before, and therefore I particularly welcome the instruction of children in road safety and traffic regulations at the school. We have been most fortunate that there have been no serious accidents or injuries, or loss of life, as a result of accidents and I would particularly appeal to all drivers of motor vehicles to drive with care and courtesy at all times. I am sorry to say that drunkenness continues to be a predominant factor among the offences brought to court, and there were five cases of persons convicted for being drunk in charge of a motor vehicle. This is a most serious offence, for a motor vehicle in charge of a drunk man is a lethal weapon and can so easily result in death or injury to some innocent person or child.

Well, Honourable Members, I have dealt with the main activities of most Government departments during the past year, and although I seem to have been talking for a long time I have by no means covered all they and other departments have done. I would like to thank Government servants for their services during the past year and to repeat that it must always be our aim to give of our best in the service of the people of this Colony.

Later in this meeting the Colonial Treasurer will be addressing you on the Estimates for the forthcoming year, and I will only speak on them briefly. But I would like to say something about revised salaries and the salary scales which are being put forward for your consideration. Honourable Members may remember that two years ago I spoke in Council of the Overseas Service Aid Scheme. This is a scheme whereby the British Government agrees with Colonial Governments to meet certain charges which are incurred because Colonial Governments still have to employ officers from Britain. In Colonial territories which have large native populations every effort is being made to train local people to fill all posts in the Civil Service, and the Overseas Service Aid Scheme is designed to help these Colonies during the transitional period. Under this scheme the British Government agrees to pay half the cost of passages of officers recruited in Britain on first appointment and when they go on leave, and also to meet the cost of education allowances. Moreover, it is agreed that officers recruited in Britain should receive the same basic pay as natives of these Colonies doing similar jobs, but that the extra amount needed to retain officers from Britain in Colonies, or to induce them to accept employment in Colonies, should be paid by the British Government. This scheme is of great benefit to the larger Colonies, for the Colonial Treasury is paying no more for British officers than for local people; but its application is not so easy in a small Colony such as this, where everyone has the same racial background and similar standards of living, and where it is unlikely that all posts in the Government service will be filled in time by Falkland Islanders. We certainly benefit and are most grateful for the assistance we receive towards passages and education allowances, but the question of our acceptance of inducement allowances is a difficult one. In some departments we have permanent and pensionable officers, some recruited in the Falklands and some overseas, doing the same jobs, and Government considers that they must receive the same total remuneration. Expatriation pay, which had caused so much ill feeling and which I believe was a contributory cause to people in Government service leaving the Colony, was abolished in 1957, and we do not want to return to it in another form.

This is the position as far as permanent and pensionable officers are concerned, and I emphasize I have been speaking about permanent and pensionable officers. But there is no longer any recruitment in Britain on a permanent and pensionable basis, and this means that all officers recruited overseas will, in future, come to this Colony on contract. It has been ruled for other Colonies, that no officers may transfer from contract terms to permanent and pensionable terms for the reason that there is no longer a career in the Colonial Service as we have known it in the past. But I have secured agreement, that as far as this Colony is concerned, consideration will be given to officers transferring to the permanent and pensionable establishment after a period here on contract, should they wish to do so. I think what we want to do is to get away from talking about local and expatriate officers and to refer instead to permanent and pensionable and to contract officers.

In most Colonies officers are paid gratuities at the end of their contract by the Colonial Government, but this is not the case in the Falkland Islands except for doctors and dentists. Since we do not pay gratuities and since contract officers have to leave their homes and set themselves up again when they return, and have no pensions to look forward to, it is reasonable that they should receive something extra if the Colony scale is insufficient to attract them to service here. The question is, how much should this difference be? Government considers that a differential in the order of 15 per cent would be fair, and that if in the future it proves to be impossible to recruit at Colony rates or even at Colony rates plus 15 per cent, then the Colony salary would have to be adjusted, and not the differential.

That leaves us with the problem of deciding on what the Colony scales of pay for various jobs should be. In a small place such as this there is no easy basis for comparison. In larger Colonies where people are employed in the professions, in commerce, and in various trades outside the Government service, comparison is much easier. Government considers it reasonable to compare Colony salaries, as far as we can, with those paid for similar jobs in Britain, and that we have been attempting to do. In making this comparison we have also to remember that in Government service leave conditions are comparatively good, and passages are paid at regular intervals.

We are now faced with the problem that in two departments, Medical and Public Works, we are unable to obtain doctors and artisans on our present rates of salary. In the case of the Medical Department, Government proposes that the Colony scales should be increased to a level at which we can hope to interest doctors from Britain, the extra inducement needed to continue to be in the form of a gratuity as it is at present. Incidentally, we have no choice but to pay gratuities if we are to recruit doctors and dentists from the National Health Service.

As far as artisans are concerned, Government considers that the Colony scales should bear comparison with those in Britain, and since in our experience these rates are insufficient to induce artisans for the P. W. D. to leave their homes and come to the Colony, the difference required should be in the form of an inducement allowance on the lines I have already mentioned, and which will be reimbursable by the British Government.

Government cannot accept the position that because the pay of doctors, with whom I include dentists, and P. W. D. artisans should be increased, the pay of all Government officers should be increased by similar amounts, and no general salaries revision is contemplated. But during the past three years there has been a steady increase in the cost of living, and under the present system, the wages of unestablished staff automatically increase when the increased cost of living passes a certain percentage figure. This, of course, does not apply to established staff although they are equally affected. I do not think that we should apply any rigid formula to employees on the permanent staff, but it is right that salaries should be reviewed from time to time taking into account any increase, or indeed any decrease if such ever were to occur, in the cost of living.

Since the last salaries revision, which became effective on the 1st of July, 1961, the cost of living has increased sufficiently to warrant awards totalling 3d. an hour to hourly paid workers. This is approximately £30 a year, and it is proposed that the salaries of all officers, with two exceptions and except for those directly affected by revised scales, should be increased by this amount.

In larger Colonies there is considerable competition for Government posts and, as I have said, their services will be staffed, in time, entirely by permanent and pensionable officers of local origin. Although I think there is little likelihood of that happening here, we must face it that at the present time there is very little inducement for a young man to enter the Government service and make his career in it. Government feels that the present long scales do not encourage young men to join the Government service, and considers that the length of the lowest scales should be considerably reduced, and proposals for this are incorporated in the Estimates. The opportunity has also been taken to cut off the bottom steps in some other scales, because officers are no longer recruited at these lower rates.

The cost of all the increases I have mentioned amounts to approximately £8,000.

To turn now to our general financial position, a considerable programme of special expenditure was initiated during the past year, for which provision was not included originally in the Estimates, but even so, the deficit has been increased by only £1,750. Revenue exceeded the estimate by almost £7,000, and the revised estimate of ordinary expenditure is some £7,000 less than the approved estimate. It is calculated that we will begin the forthcoming financial year with reserves amounting to some £426,000. Ordinary expenditure for the forthcoming year is estimated at £338,530 which is £43,000 more than the estimated total ordinary revenue for the period. This is a significant difference, but it would be considerably larger had not our new taxation policy been introduced last year. Next year will see the first full effect of this policy in which the standard rate of income tax of 5/9d. and a profits tax of 2/- in the £. replaces the standard rate of 3/6d. and export duty on wool. The objective of increasing the revenue, without seriously increasing the tax burden of any of the companies or firms that operate here, will be largely achieved, and the extra £30,000, which we calculate the new system will bring in in revenue in 1963/64, will come mainly from the companies controlled abroad. What they pay in additional tax to the Colony treasury will be offset by what they receive in relief from the United Kingdom treasury. The new system has the advantage that revenue will benefit much more in periods of prosperity, for export duty on wool increased along fixed steps according to the average price of wool, but receipts from the new taxes will tend to increase more steeply as profits go up. I am hopeful, that if the final results of the wool sales this year are as good as anticipated, the gap between ordinary revenue and expenditure will be considerably reduced, and may even disappear, in 1964/65.

Special expenditure for the forthcoming year amounts to £36,000, which will bring the overall anticipated deficit for the year to £79,000, thus reducing the total reserves a year from now to about £348,000. When reserves fall, the income from our investments naturally falls too, and I think it would now be wise to consider whether special expenditure might not perhaps be better financed by means of a loan. This requires expert advice, which I propose to seek when I am in England.

Once more, I hope that the picture I have given Honourable Members is not too gloomy a one. We have the encouraging fact of the rise in the wool price, and in spite of the competition from synthetic materials, I think that wool will always be needed and that increased world-wide prosperity may even intensify the demand.

This is the last session of Council which will be attended by Mr. Manders, our Colonial Secretary. I am sure that it is the wish of all Honourable Members that I should extend to him and to his family our very best wishes for the future."

4. The Honourable the Colonial Secretary laid on the Table the following papers —

- (i) Medical Report 1962.
- (ii) Police Report 1962.
- (iii) Certificate of Director General Overseas Audit 1961/62 Accounts.
- (iv) Copies of subsidiary legislation made or approved by the Governor in Executive Council since November 1962.

5. The Honourable the Colonial Treasurer seconded by the Honourable the Colonial Secretary moved the adoption of the following Resolution —

“BE IT RESOLVED that the Report of the Standing Finance Committee for the period October 1962 to May 1963, be adopted”.

The Resolution was adopted.

6. The Honourable the Colonial Treasurer then introduced the Bill entitled “An Ordinance to provide for the service of the year 1963/64”, saying —

“Your Excellency,

This Bill seeks authority for Government expenditure in 1963/64 amounting to £380,412, but before going into the details of how this figure is made up and how it is to be financed may I spend a few moments in reviewing the state of the current year's affairs as they now appear.

The revised deficit for 1962/63 is £70,777 or £1,758 more than was originally expected. May I draw particular attention to this small increase and then point to the considerable programme of special expenditure introduced during the year - a new motor vehicle for the Aviation Department and new aircraft seats for the same department, oil storage tanks, the high level water tank, the extension to the Stanley Cemetery and the equipping of Government Offices with fire fighting appliances, to list the principal items, at a cost in the region of £22,000 - and say that there is some reason for satisfaction that such a programme could be carried out without more seriously increasing the deficit. Ordinary Revenue up by £7,000 and Ordinary Expenditure down by £7,000, together with a number of Special Expenditure items that will not now be executed, explain why this was possible.

For 1963/64 Ordinary Expenditure is estimated to be £338,530 or £17,917 more than the approved estimate for the current year. Expenditure reimbursable from Colonial Development and Welfare funds is estimated at £5,706 and this represents the balance of the grant towards the cost of the roads programme. Special Expenditure is estimated to total £36,176 and includes among the principal items a tentative estimate of £7,300 for buildings for the Education Department, £5,000 for transferring the Ajax Bay house to Stanley (it will be recalled that we earlier planned to transfer it to Fox Bay), £6,443 for the completion of the Oil Storage Tanks together with £5,000 for partly filling one of them, £1,000 for machinery for the Public Works Carpenters' Shop and £4,200 for automatic typesetting equipment for the Printing Office.

It is proposed that this expenditure should be financed in the following manner. From Ordinary Revenue, £295,440; from Colonial Development and Welfare funds, £5,706; from Reserves, £79,266. A summary of the budget might be expressed in these terms —

Expenditure totalling £380,000 or £18,000 more than the estimate for the current year.

Revenue totalling £300,000 or £19,000 more than the estimate for the current year.

Ordinary Expenditure to exceed Ordinary Revenue by £43,000 compared with £44,000 estimated for the current year.

A deficit of £79,000 compared with £69,000 estimated for the current year. In both cases the deficit is to be met from reserves.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill.”

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary seconded and the Bill was read a first time and on further motion made and seconded, was read a second time.

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary, seconded by the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer then moved that the Bill and draft Estimates be referred to a Select Committee of the House. The President appointed a Select Committee consisting of the Honourable the Colonial Secretary, the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer and all unofficial members of Council and adjourned Council to await the Report of the Select Committee.

The Honourable the Colonial Treasurer reporting back to Council at 10 a.m. on Friday 28th June stated that the Select Committee had considered the draft Estimates and agreed to the following amendments —

REVENUE:

HEAD XVI. TRANSFER FROM RESERVE FUND.
increase from £79,266 to £84,616.

EXPENDITURE:

HEAD II. AGRICULTURE.

11. Building Materials. Increased from £30 to £200.

HEAD VII. MEDICAL.

1. viii. Dental Technician. Decrease from £1,050 to £730.
 16. Heat, Light, and Fuel. Increase from £5,500 to £6,000.

HEAD XX. SPECIAL EXPENDITURE.

Insert new item 31. New High Level Water Tank £5,000 and reduce the revised figure for 1962/63 from £11,000 to £8,000.

His Excellency then declared Council to be in committee and Clause 1 was agreed to. Consideration of Clause 2 was postponed until after consideration of the Schedule.

The Honourable the Colonial Treasurer seconded by the Honourable the Colonial Secretary moved that the Schedule should stand part of the Bill subject to the following amendments —

Head				Delete	Insert
II.	AGRICULTURE	5,676	5,846
VII.	MEDICAL	36,552	36,732
Total Ordinary Expenditure				338,530	338,880
XX.	SPECIAL EXPENDITURE	...		36,176	41,176
Total Expenditure				385,412	385,762

It was agreed that the Schedule, as amended, should stand part of the Bill and that clause 2 should likewise stand part of the Bill with the following amendments —

By the deletion of the words "Three hundred and eighty-five thousand, seven hundred and twelve pounds" and the substitution of the words "Three hundred and eighty-five thousand, seven hundred and sixty-two pounds"; and by the deletion of the figure "£385,412" in the marginal notes and the substitution therefor of the figure "£385,762".

The Enacting Clause and Title were agreed to and the Bill was read a third time and passed.

7. Introducing the Post Office (Amendment) Ordinance, 1963, the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer said —

"Your Excellency,

This is a rather formal matter and seeks only to set a limit on the time that obsolete issues of postage stamps can be used for postal purposes. The Post Office Ordinance makes no mention of invalidating stamps although it is clearly necessary that it should. When an issue of stamps is withdrawn from sale ample time is always given for people who have stocks to either use them or have them exchanged for the new issue. Eventually this obsolete issue must cease to be acceptable for postal purposes and in fact foreign countries are likely to surcharge the addressees of letters bearing obsolete stamps even though they are still acceptable to us as payment for postage.

The Bill now before Council proposes that the power to invalidate issues of postage stamps and other postal matter should vest in the Governor in Council.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Honourable L. Bedford seconded and the Bill was read a first time. On further motion made and seconded the Bill received a second reading and during the Committee stage the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer moved that Clause 2 stand part of the Bill but that Clause 1 be amended by substituting the figures 1963 for 1962. This was agreed to as was the Enacting Clause and Title. Council resumed and the Bill, as amended was read a third time and passed.

8. The Honourable the Colonial Secretary proposed the first reading of the Bill entitled the "Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1963" saying —

"Your Excellency,

This Bill seeks to amend the Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Ordinance of 1959. When the Colonial Secretary moved the original Ordinance in 1959 he pointed out that it was important with a view to bringing us into line with other Commonwealth Countries rather than for any great effect it was likely to have on this Colony. However the Ordinance did provide that with regard to Foreign Judgments arrangements could be made with other countries whereby a Foreign Judgment of that Country could be enforced in the Falkland Islands and similarly our Foreign Judgments could be enforced in such Foreign Countries. Now naturally in an international matter like this we have to be guided entirely by instructions from the Colonial Office as to the wording of the Bill and the final Ordinance and in this case we were so guided, but since that time the Legal Advisers of the Colonial Office have pointed out that in the Ordinance as passed here (and in other Colonies no doubt) there was a mistake. Now the mistake was as follows - sometimes of course a case instead of being decided by a Court is referred to Arbitration and the award of the Arbitrators has the effect of a judgment in almost all respects and indeed an Arbitration award in one Commonwealth Country can be enforced in another Commonwealth Country. But an Arbitration award made in the United Kingdom could not be enforced in a Foreign Country - that is just the way that things are - and similarly the Arbitration award of a Foreign Country could not be enforced in the United Kingdom or here and so it has been necessary to amend the Ordinance which was passed in 1959 by altering the definition of a judgment so as to make it clear that it did not include an Arbitration award. As a result of that followed all kinds of other amendments which it is very difficult to follow but that is the point. But this drafting of such laws must present peculiar difficulties because even since this Bill has been gazetted the Secretary of State has brought to our notice one very small trilling amendment which has to be made in the suggested Bill which he gave us before, and that's a very small matter, but in the Bill before you it is said that this Ordinance will apply to any part of the Commonwealth outside the United Kingdom and it should be "any part of the Commonwealth outside this Colony"; and again at the end of the Bill it says "references in this Section to any part of the Commonwealth outside the United Kingdom" and it should read "outside the Colony". And so in Committee I will ask permission to make that other amendment. I think that explains the object of the Bill.

I beg to move the first reading."

The motion was seconded by the Honourable A. B. Monk and the Bill was read a first time. On further motion made and seconded the Bill was read a second time and His Excellency declared Council to be in Committee. The Honourable the Colonial Secretary moved that clauses 1 and 2 be accepted as part of the Bill but that the words "United Kingdom" where they occurred in Clause 3 be deleted and replaced with the word "Colony". This was adopted and the Enacting Clause and title were also agreed to. The Bill, as amended, was then read a third time and passed.

9. When introducing the "Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1963" the Honourable the Colonial Secretary said —

"Your Excellency,

This Bill is a very small matter. Again I think it is perhaps more in order that we should fall into line with other Commonwealth Countries, but the point is that a Maintenance Order at present can only be served on the Governor and if we bring in this Amendment it can be served on the Governor or the competent authority appointed under the law of the Colony which would probably be the Registrar Supreme Court. It doesn't make much difference here but in other Colonies it would save time and so it has been suggested that we should make that very small amendment. And when we were amending the law we found out that section 8 of the principal Ordinance had a mistake. It referred to some other Ordinance and it referred to section 68 of that Ordinance whereas the proper section was section 69 so it is sought to remedy that mistake at the same time.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Honourable J. T. Clement seconded the motion and the Bill received its first reading. The Bill was read a second time on further motion and Council went into Committee. Clauses 1 to 3 together with the Enacting Clause and Title were agreed to, the Council resumed and the Bill was read a third time and passed.

10. Introducing the "Matrimonial Causes (Amendment) Ordinance, 1963", the Honourable the Colonial Secretary said —

"Your Excellency,

This Bill seeks to amend the Matrimonial Causes Ordinance. There are two points. Now section 4 of the Matrimonial Causes Ordinance at present gives the four grounds for divorce briefly adultery, desertion, cruelty and insanity. Now in dealing with insanity it provides that a person is considered to be insane if he is to the satisfaction of the court incurably of unsound mind and has been continuously under care and treatment for a period of at least five years immediately preceding the presentation of the petition. Care and treatment is defined as follows — "for the purpose of the preceding section a person of unsound mind shall be deemed to be under care and treatment while he is detained in pursuance of any order made under the provisions of the Mental Treatment Ordinance". Well of course our Mental Treatment Ordinance in this Colony can only deal with people who are found to be of unsound mind in this Colony but it is quite possible that the person might have a husband or wife who is declared to be of unsound mind in England or anywhere else and therefore it is necessary to amend the Ordinance so as to include that; and there is a second point which sounds a little bit technical but it is the word "intentionally". Of course when a person is of unsound mind he can't do anything intentionally so it might happen that in a case of desertion you might have to prove that a person has intentionally deserted for a certain time and it might happen that intentional desertion might have been considered to have been broken by a period of insanity and now if this Bill is passed the law will make it quite clear that a person will be considered to have deserted intentionally even in such a case unless there is evidence to show that he would have gone back if he had been of sound mind.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The Bill was seconded by the Honourable the Senior Medical Officer and read a first time. No objections being raised it was read a second time and in Committee Clauses 1 to 3, the Enacting Clause and Title were agreed to. Council resumed and the Bill was read a third time and passed.

11. The Honourable the Colonial Treasurer presented the "Non-Contributory Old Age Pensions (Amendment) Ordinance, 1963", saying —

"Your Excellency,

The Non-Contributory Old Age Pensions Ordinance provides for the widows of men who died before the introduction of the contributory scheme in 1952, or, although alive at that date were excluded by age from contributing, to be granted a pension provided they were 65 years of age on 1st July, 1961.

So far as it goes this is satisfactory, but what about the widows to whose cases similar circumstances apply except that they had not reached the age of 65 on 1st July, 1961. Are they to be excluded?

Quite clearly the object of the non-contributory scheme is to make special provision for those people who were excluded from the benefits of the contributory scheme. Accepting the age of 65 as the minimum pensionable age we have extended the scope of the scheme to most of the widows whom it is the intention to include, but by adding the proviso that they must have been 65 on 1st July, 1961, we have (unwittingly, I suggest) excluded a few who we wish equally to help.

This Bill proposes the deletion of the words "1st July, 1961" from the proviso to section 4 (a) of the Non-Contributory Ordinance which would mean that any widow whose circumstances are those described earlier would receive a pension on reaching the age of 65. This, I am sure, is what we have had in mind from the start.

I beg to move the first reading of the Bill."

The motion was seconded by the Honourable R. V. Goss and the Bill received its first reading. Seconding the second reading of the Bill, the Honourable R. V. Goss remarked —

"Your Excellency,

The amendment now before Council introduces an added improvement in social security and it also shows that Government is on its toes, so to speak, in this respect. I am very pleased to be associated with the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer in raising the amendment for Legislation, as indeed I am pleased to be associated with any scheme which improves the welfare of the people of this Colony."

No objections being made the Bill was read a second time and passed through all its stages in Committee without amendment. The Bill was then read a third time and passed.

12. Introducing the "Stanley Common Ordinance, 1963" the Honourable the Colonial Secretary said —

"Your Excellency,

This Bill seeks to prevent the uncontrolled dumping of rubbish on the Common.

I beg to move the first reading."

The Honourable J. R. Rowlands seconded and the Bill was read accordingly. During the second reading of the Bill the Honourable J. R. Rowlands addressed Council saying —

"Your Excellency,

This Bill together with its attributing fine, if passed by Council, will do away with this rather untidy habit of depositing rubbish on various parts of Stanley Common, and perhaps here I should mention Government being one of the many offenders. Not only is this rubbish becoming a hazard to our animals, but is also an eyesore to many of our citizens and visitors.

While speaking on this Bill I consider it worthy of mention, that I believe the ash and other waste materials from Stanley could well be put to good account, if a scheme whereby controlled dumping were instigated and a small sum put aside by Government each year to finance such a scheme. As can be seen much of the peat has been removed near Stanley, leaving much scarred and barren land, a scheme of this nature with the co-operation of Stanley householders, the Town Council and its contractors, I feel certain would turn what is now a liability, into an asset, as the present frontage of Ross Road East proves."

Replying to the Honourable J. R. Rowlands, the Honourable the Colonial Secretary remarked —

"Your Excellency,

I would like to thank the Honourable Member for his support of this Bill. If Government has indeed been an offender in the past in this respect I think it is very regrettable and I feel sure that it will not happen in the future. With regard to the proposal for the control of the dumping of ash to improve the Common I can assure the Honourable Member that this proposal is having and will have the very careful consideration of Government."

The Bill was then read a second time and committed. Clauses 1 to 5, the Enacting Clause and Title were agreed to and the Bill proceeded to its final reading and passed.

13. The Honourable the Senior Medical Officer seconded by the Honourable the Colonial Treasurer moved that the House stand adjourned sine die.

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary in his farewell address to the House said —

"Your Excellency,

Before this House adjourns and before my last Meeting of the Legislative Council comes to an end I should like to take this opportunity in the first place of thanking Your Excellency for the gracious remarks and good wishes which Your Excellency made in the address at the beginning of this Meeting. And I should also like to take the opportunity of thanking all the Members of this Council, and may I also add the Members of the Executive Council, for all the courtesy and kindness and patience which they have extended to me which have made my work here so much more pleasant than it would otherwise have been. Your Excellency in the address, referred to the loyal service given by the public servants during this year and I would also like to thank the public servants for all the very loyal support they have given me during the three years I have been here. And I think it is not inappropriate in this House to take this opportunity of thanking all the inhabitants of the Falkland Islands for the great kindness they have shown to myself and my family which has made these years so happy. And finally I would refer to the various plans which have been considered here and elsewhere for the improvement of this Colony and would wish this Council all success in bringing these and other plans to a successful conclusion."

Before putting the motion for adjournment, His Excellency informed the House that on the previous day he had received the news that Mr. S. P. Atkins had been awarded the Imperial Service Medal. He knew the House would join with him in congratulating Mr. Atkins on this very well deserved award. His Excellency also thanked Honourable Members for all the care and attention they had given to considering the Estimates. He remarked that he had said this regularly and meant it most sincerely. He also referred to the fact that this would probably be the last Budget Session of this particular Council and quite probably of his own. Throughout its life the Council had given the very closest attention to all aspects of Government business, and particularly to Government expenditure. His Excellency said he had heard the view expressed that Members of Council were rubber stamps. Nothing could be further from the truth. He pointed out that all Government matters were carefully considered before being submitted to Council and that some proposals never even got as far as Standing Finance Committee, because it was considered they would have no possibility of receiving approval. Government could put up schemes which it knew very well would be shot down by Standing Finance Committee, but he did not think this was the way to conduct Government business. Although it might not be immediately obvious to everyone, the mere presence of the Unofficial Members on Council had a decisive influence on Government planning and policy. His Excellency welcomed the presence of two Elected Members of Legislative Council on Executive Council. Their advice had been most helpful and they were able to explain matters in Standing Finance Committee which had been considered in Executive Council. It might well be that on occasions Standing Finance Committee would bring up points which Executive Council had missed, for no one is infallible, and the two Members would then bring the matter back to Executive Council for further consideration. His Excellency concluded by thanking Honourable Members again for their services during the Session.

Council adjourned sine die.

REX BROWNING,
Acting Registrar.

Stanley, Falkland Islands.
28th October, 1963.

S.C. 28/63.

Pay and Working Rules for Hourly Paid Employees in Stanley.

These rules shall constitute an agreement between Stanley Employers and the Labour Federation and shall be reviewed annually in October by the Government and the Falkland Islands Company, Ltd. as employers, and the Labour Federation. These Rules shall be effective for a period of twelve months beginning on the 1st of January, 1964, subject to the quarterly review of wage rates. (See 1, below.)

1. Basis of Wage Rates.

Wages shall be adjustable by negotiation except that any changes, up or down, arising from fluctuations in the cost of living shall be automatic and date from the first day of the month following the quarter to which a review relates. In measuring the cost of living for the purposes of wage adjustments an average of the findings for the last four quarters shall be used.

(a) CRAFTSMEN.

All Craftsmen shall be paid at the full basic rate and the following trades shall be recognised :—

Carpenters and Joiners	Masons
Blacksmiths	Plumbers
Painters	Electricians
Motor Mechanics

The normal entry to a trade shall be by a full term of apprenticeship, but special arrangements shall be made for the absorption of men already practising trades without previously serving apprenticeships. These arrangements are laid down in the apprenticeship regulations.

(b) APPRENTICES.

The rates of pay for apprentices shall be as follows—

Year.		Fraction of Craftsman's Rate.
1st	...	One Third
2nd	...	Two Fifths
3rd	...	One Half
4th	...	Two Thirds
5th	...	Four Fifths.

(c) HANDYMEN.

This term includes those employees doing skilled or semi-skilled work in one or more trades, but who have not served an apprenticeship nor have been recognised by the Apprenticeship Board. The minimum rate for Handymen shall be three pence more than the Labourer's rate and the maximum two pence less than the Craftsmen's rate.

(d) SLAUGHTERMEN AND LORRY DRIVERS.

Slaughtermen shall be paid one penny more than the Labourer's rate and shall be provided with suitable protective clothing and footwear.

All drivers of petrol, steam or diesel engines, whether stationary or mobile, shall be paid 3d. per hour more than the Labourer's rate while engaged in this work.

2. Prevailing Rates.

Class		Hourly Rate.
1. Tradesmen	...	4/9d.
2. Apprentices	1st year	1/7½
	2nd year	1/11
	3rd year	2/4½
	4th year	3/2
	5th year	3/9½
3. Handymen	...	4/- to 4/7 according to ability.
4. Slaughtermen and tradesmen's mates	...	3/10
5. Lorry Drivers, including men tending stationary engines or boilers	...	4/-
6. Labourers	...	3/9
7. Boy Labourers	Age	% of man's rate
	14-15	40
	15-16	50
	16-17	66½
	17-18	80
	18	100
		1/6d.
		1/10½

The above hourly rates are minimum and employers may, if they so wish, offer higher rates, incentive bonuses, etc.

CASUAL LABOUR. There is now no work which justifies a casual labour rate.

3. Extra Payments.

(a) "DIRT" MONEY.

As a general guide, "Dirt" money should only be paid when the work in hand is substantially dirtier than the work which an employee is normally called upon to do. The normal rate is 2d. per hour, but the precise rate for each job shall be agreed between Employer and Employees.

(b) HAZARDOUS WORK.

Employees working on isolated structures, such as masts, at heights over 30 feet from the ground or where the structure joins the main roof of a building, shall receive from 4d. to 8d. per hour according to the risk involved. This does not apply to work on properly erected scaffolding.

(c) INCONVENIENCE PAY.

Employees required, by the employer, to carry their midday meal shall receive 2/- per day. Employees required to sleep away from home in a recognised camp house or cook-house shall have their board and lodgings paid for by their employer.

(d) EXTRA SKILL OR RESPONSIBILITY.

(i) Any employee specifically detailed to supervise the work of three or more other employees shall receive 3d. per hour extra while taking this responsibility.

(ii) Any labourer employed on semi-skilled work which would normally fall to a Handyman (e.g. painting, fencing, concrete laying) shall receive pay as a Handyman (i.e. a minimum of 3d. per hour extra) while engaged on this work. The precise rate shall be fixed by the employer according to the nature of the work and the skill of the particular labourer so employed.

(e) PAINT SPRAYING.

Employees engaged on paint spraying shall be paid 6d. per hour extra and no other allowance.

4. Working Hours.

The normal working hours shall be 45 hours per week made up as follows :-

Monday to Friday - 7.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. with Dinner break from noon till 1 p.m.

Saturday - 7.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.

A refreshment break of fifteen minutes shall be allowed between 08.30 and 09.30 a.m., the precise time being laid down by the employer.

Other hours of work may be laid down by mutual agreement between employers and employees, provided that the total number of hours does not exceed 45 per week.

5. Overtime.

- (a) Overtime shall be paid for all hours worked outside normal working hours and overtime rates shall be as follows :-

TIME AND A HALF.

- (i) Between the end of the normal day and midnight.
- (ii) From 6 a.m. to the start of the normal working day, provided that work did not start before 6 a.m.

DOUBLE TIME.

- (i) Between midnight and 6 a.m.
 - (ii) From 6 a.m. to the start of the normal working day, if work commenced before 6 a.m.
 - (iii) On Sundays and recognised Public Holidays.
 - (iv) For meal hours or parts thereof, if work continues through the normal working day without a full meal-hour break.
 - (v) Double time rates shall also be paid during normal working hours if, exceptionally, an employee starts work before midnight and continues without a break into normal working hours. Double time rates shall then continue to apply until there is an (unpaid) break from work exceeding four hours, after which the normal rates will again apply.
- (b) An unpaid meal hour shall be allowed at a reasonable time if overtime is expected to continue for more than two hours beyond normal finishing time, and a paid refreshment break of not more than fifteen minutes shall be allowed in each subsequent 4-hour period.
- (c) Overtime is voluntary and an employee shall not be dismissed if he objects to working outside normal working hours. However, certain jobs may require attendance at times outside the normal hours and in these cases employees shall be given the option of a 45-hour week by allowing time off during normal working hours, at a time to be agreed with the employer.

6. Holidays.

(a) ANNUAL HOLIDAYS.

All employees shall be entitled to a paid holiday of 40 hours after the completion of the first six months of continuous service and thereafter at the rate of 8 hours for each month of continuous service. Paid holidays may be accumulated without limit and taken at a time to be mutually agreed upon.

(b) PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

These are days on which Government Offices are closed by notification in the Gazette and the following seven days shall be paid holidays for all employees :-

Good Friday, The Queen's Birthday, Empire Day, December 8th, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and one other day to coincide with the Stanley Annual Sports Meeting.

Individual employers shall be entitled to decide whether or not to observe the remaining Public Holidays or to treat them as normal working days but in no circumstances may they be treated as unpaid holidays.

- (c) Any allowance or special rates earned on both the working day preceding and the working day following the holiday shall be paid for the holiday.
- (d) When a dated holiday falls on a Sunday the next working day shall be the holiday.

7. Sick Pay.

- (a) Employees who have not completed one year's service with their employer shall not be entitled to sick pay.
- (b) The following rules apply to employees who have completed one year's service with their employer.
 - (i) There shall be no entitlement to sick pay for the first week of absence caused by sickness, but if sickness lasts for more than one week, an employee shall be entitled to half pay for the second, third and fourth weeks. While off work through illness an employee shall have the option of taking part or the whole of any annual leave due to him.
 - (ii) Full pay shall be paid for any Public Holiday which falls during the first four weeks of sickness, provided that the employee, when he has recovered, returns to work for the same employer.
- (c) An employer may demand a medical certificate before applying any of the rules 7 (b) (i), (ii).
- (d) The Workmen's Compensation Ordinance shall apply in cases of sickness resulting from accidents at work.

8. General.

- (a) Employment is normally terminated, either by employer or employee, at the end of the working week, but employment may be terminated at the end of any working day. A minimum of two hours' notice shall be given, except in the case of misdemeanour, when an employee may be summarily dismissed.
- (b) When a party of employees are required to carry meals to their work, one employee shall be allowed reasonable time to heat meals for the rest of the party.
- (c) Individual employers may lay down the times when employees shall appear for their wages, provided that the payment is completed within ten minutes of the end of the normal working day.
- (d) An official or delegation of a recognised union may, with the employer's consent, attend at a job or shop at any time to interview workmen, but no meeting shall take place in working hours without the express permission of the employer. If a dispute arises, the employer or his nominee shall interview, by appointment, any official representative of his employees.
- (e) All employers shall display for the benefit of their employees copies of Regulations and Rules pertaining to wages and conditions of service of workers.
