

cart tracks. The peat so stacked must be removed during the next season. Failure to observe this rule will render the bank holder liable to the forfeiture of the peat cut and remaining on the ground.

Disposal of top sods.

10. All top sods, after being removed from the top of the bank, must be properly laid under foot, so as to form the top sod of the next cut or the top soil of a hard bottom.

Water must not be allowed to accumulate in trenches.

11. Banks must be drained, as far as possible, and water in any quantity, which would become a source of danger, must not be allowed to lodge in the trenches, and trenches must be left in such a condition as not to render them liable to flood.

Penalty for non-observance of rules.

12. If any person disobeys or fails to comply with any of these rules or to carry out any proper directions of the Executive Engineer in relation to the peat banks, the Governor in Council may order the reversion to the Crown of the use of the peat bank in respect of which an offence is committed.

Saving clause.

13. Nothing in these rules shall limit in any degree the right of the Crown to resume any peat bank or part thereof at any time and without compensation, where the public interest so requires.
