

CLERGYMEN.*Ordinance No. 1 of 1865.

[22nd August, 1865.]

Recital.

Whereas by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Cap. 84, intituled, "An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canterbury, or the Archbishop of York, for the time being to consecrate to the office of Bishop persons being subjects or citizens of countries out of His Majesty's dominions," it was enacted that no person or persons admitted to the Order of Deacon or Priest by any Bishop or Bishops so consecrated, or by the successor or successors of any Bishops so consecrated, should be thereby enabled to exercise his or their respective office or offices within His Majesty's dominions.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Cap. 121, intituled, "An Act to establish the validity of Acts performed in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad by certain Clergymen ordained in foreign parts, and to extend the powers of Colonial Legislatures with respect to such Clergymen," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Legislature of any of Her Majesty's possessions abroad by any law or laws to be by them passed, to authorise any persons admitted to the Order of Priest or Deacon by any of such Bishops as are mentioned in the said first recited Act to exercise their respective offices in such possessions.

And whereas it is expedient that the Legislature of this Colony should exercise the powers so conferred upon it as aforesaid.

Be it enacted by the Governor of the Falkland Islands and the Dependencies thereof, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Validity of Acts.

1. All Acts which may at any time hereafter be performed in the Falkland Islands or their Dependencies by any person having been admitted to the office of Priest or Deacon by any of such Bishops as aforesaid shall be as valid and effectual at law for all purposes whatever, as if such person had been so admitted by a Bishop or Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Clergymen's Ordinance, 1865."

Ordinance No. 1 of 1867.

[23rd March, 1867.]

Be it enacted by the Governor of the Falkland Islands and the Dependencies thereof, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor to grant to any person a licence in writing under his hand to kill penguins on the unoccupied lands of the Crown on the East Falkland Island and islands adjacent thereto lying north of Choiseul Sound and Brenton Loch, or on the West Falkland Island and the islands adjacent thereto; such licence to be upon such terms and conditions, and for such payment as the Governor may deem reasonable.

2. Each licence shall be for twelve months only :

Duration of licence revocation.

Provided, nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time to revoke a licence upon proof that any of the conditions contained therein have been broken.

3. It shall be lawful for the Governor at his discretion, to grant or revoke a licence to kill penguins on any private lands situated within the districts as aforesaid, on the application, in writing, of the owner or occupier of such lands. Such licence, if granted, shall be for twelve months, and shall be issued free of charge.

Governor may grant licences
to kill penguins
on private lands.

4. A statement of the names of all persons licensed under this Ordinance shall be placed on the

Names of licensees to be published.
