DOG .

Ordinance No. 3 of 1868.

[7th October, 1868.]

Be it enacted by the Governor of the Falkland Islands and the Dependencies thereof, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. The owner of every dog in this Colony shall be liable in damages for injury done by worrying to any cattle, sheep or other like stock by his dog, and it shall not be necessary for the party seeking such damages to show a previous mischievous propensity in such dog, or the owner's knowledge of such previous propensity, or that the injury was attributable to neglect on the part of such owner, and such damages shall be recovered by the ordinary process of law in force in this Colony.

Owner of dog to be liable in damages for any injury committed by his dog.

2. The occupier of any house or premises where any dog was kept, or permitted to live or remain at the time of such injury, shall be deemed to be the owner of such dog, and shall be liable as such unless the said occupier can prove that he was not the owner of such dog at the time the injury complained of was committed, and that such dog was kept or permitted to live or remain in the said house or premises without his sanction or knowledge :

Provided always, that where there are more occupiers than one in any house or premises let in separate apartments, or lodgings, or otherwise, the occupier of that particular part of the premises in which such dog shall have been kept, or permitted to live or remain at the time of such injury, shall be deemed to be the owner of such dog.

3. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Dogs Ordinance, 1868."
