Summary Jurisdiction Amendment Ordinance.

In the Year 1862.—No. 2.

By His Excellency THOMAS EDWARD LAWS MOORE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

WHEREAS it is expedient that a further Ordinance be passed for the protection of neat cattle and to prevent disputes on the subject of cattle generally. Be it enacted:— Preamble.

1. That from and after the 1st June, 1863, all neat cattle found anywhere upon the main of the East and West Falklands outside the district known as Lafonia without a regular brand mark made with a heated iron shall be deemed to belong to the herds of wild cattle which are the property of the Crown, and that each Proprietor of the cattle shall have a distinct brand of not less than 4 inches in length, an impression of which shall be registered at the Court House, and which shall not be changed without notice being given in writing to the Chairman of the Courts, and that no animal be considered as branded if it be marked only on the horns and tail. Cattle to be branded.

2. Provided that in all districts on which neat cattle may in future be placed the branding as aforesaid shall be completed within one month from their being so placed, and this shall take effect immediately from and after the passing of this Ordinance.

3. Whereas the delay incident to a previous communication with Her Majesty to know Her royal pleasure hereupon may be productive of serious inconvenience: Be it therefore enacted, that this Ordinance shall take effect and come into operation from and after the fifteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

Summary Jurisdiction Amendment Ordinance.

In the Year 1862.—No. 3.

By His Excellency THOMAS EDWARD LAWS MOORE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Falkland Islands, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

[122346]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the sum of £5 mentioned in the 39th clause of the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinance No. 11 of 1853, does not appear sufficient for the protection of property for the injury to which no punishment is otherwise provided in that Ordinance.

Be it enacted—

1. That the 39th clause of the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinance No. 11 of 1853 be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed, and the following clause substituted in its stead.

2. That any person who shall unlawfully and wilfully commit any damage, injury or spoil, to or upon, any real or personal property whatsoever either of a public or private nature, for which offence no punishment is already otherwise provided by this Ordinance (the injury done being under the value of Fifty pounds) shall pay to the party aggrieved such reasonable amount of compensation for the injury done as the Justice shall see fit: and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding the sum of Forty shillings.

3. That this Ordinance be deemed and taken to be for every intent and purpose as much a part of the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinance No. 11, 1853, as if it were incorporated therein.

4. Whereas the delay incident to a previous communication with Her Majesty to know Her Royal pleasure hereupon might be productive of inconvenience: Be it therefore enacted that this Ordinance shall take effect and come into operation from the passing thereof.

(Signed) THOS. E. L. MOORE, Governor.

Passed the Legislative Council this twenty-first day of August, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

(Signed) WILLIAM R. PYNE, Clerk to the Council.

17.

An Ordinance to establish the validity of Acts which may be hereafter performed in the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies by Clergymen ordained in foreign parts.

In the Year 1865.—No. 1.

By His Excellency JAMES GEORGE MACKENZIE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

BE it enacted that the Ordinance No. 1 of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Recital.

Whereas by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter eighty-four, intituled, "An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canterbury, or the Archbishop of York, for the time being to consecrate to the Office of Bishop persons being Subjects or Citizens of countries out of His Majesty's dominions," it was enacted that no person or persons admitted to the Order of Deacon or Priest by any Bishop or Bishops so consecrated, or by the successor or successors of any Bishops so consecrated, should be thereby enabled to exercise his or their respective office or offices within His Majesty's dominions.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and twenty-one, intituled, "An Act to establish the validity of Acts performed in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad by certain Clergymen ordained in foreign parts, and to extend the powers of Colonial Legislatures with respect to such Clergymen," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Legislature of any of Her Majesty's possessions abroad by any law or laws to be by them passed, to authorise any persons admitted to the order of Priest or Deacon by any of such Bishops as are mentioned in the said first recited Act to exercise their respective offices in such possessions.

And whereas it is expedient that the Legislature of this Colony should exercise the powers so conferred upon it as aforesaid.
