

Preamble.

WHEREAS the sum of £5 mentioned in the 39th clause of the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinance No. 11 of 1853, does not appear sufficient for the protection of property for the injury to which no punishment is otherwise provided in that Ordinance.

Be it enacted—

1. That the 39th clause of the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinance No. 11 of 1853 be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed, and the following clause substituted in its stead.

2. That any person who shall unlawfully and wilfully commit any damage, injury or spoil, to or upon, any real or personal property whatsoever either of a public or private nature, for which offence no punishment is already otherwise provided by this Ordinance (the injury done being under the value of Fifty pounds) shall pay to the party aggrieved such reasonable amount of compensation for the injury done as the Justice shall see fit: and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding the sum of Forty shillings.

3. That this Ordinance be deemed and taken to be for every intent and purpose as much a part of the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinance No. 11, 1853, as if it were incorporated therein.

4. Whereas the delay incident to a previous communication with Her Majesty to know Her Royal pleasure hereupon might be productive of inconvenience: Be it therefore enacted that this Ordinance shall take effect and come into operation from the passing thereof.

(Signed) THOS. E. L. MOORE, Governor.

Passed the Legislative Council this twenty-first day of August, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

17.

An Ordinance to establish the validity of Acts which may be hereafter performed in the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies by Clergymen ordained in foreign parts.

In the Year 1865.—No. 1.

By His Excellency JAMES GEORGE MacKENZIE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Falkland Islands and their Dependencies, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

BE it enacted that the Ordinance No. 1 of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Recital.

Whereas by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter eighty-four, intituled, "An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canterbury, or the Archbishop of York, for the time being to consecrate to the Office of Bishop persons being Subjects or Citizens of countries out of His Majesty's dominions," it was enacted that no person or persons admitted to the Order of Deacon or Priest by any Bishop or Bishops so consecrated, or by the successor or successors of any Bishops so consecrated, should be thereby enabled to exercise his or their respective office or offices within His Majesty's dominions.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and twenty-one, intituled, "An Act to establish the validity of Acts performed in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad by certain Clergymen ordained in foreign parts, and to extend the powers of Colonial Legislatures with respect to such Clergymen," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Legislature of any of Her Majesty's possessions abroad by any law or laws to be by them passed, to authorise any persons admitted to the order of Priest or Deacon by any of such Bishops as are mentioned in the said first recited Act to exercise their respective offices in such possessions.

And whereas it is expedient that the Legislature of this Colony should exercise the powers so conferred upon it as aforesaid.

Be it enacted—

1. That all Acts which may at any time hereafter be performed in the Falkland Islands or their dependencies by any person having been admitted to the office of Priest or Deacon by any of such Bishops as aforesaid shall be as valid and effectual at law for all purposes whatever, as if such person had been so admitted by a Bishop or Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland.

All acts hereafter performed by persons ordained by Bishops consecrated under the 26th Geo. III, cap. 84, to be valid.

And whereas the delay incident to a previous communication with Her Majesty to know Her Royal pleasure hereupon would be productive of inconvenience, be it therefore enacted that this Ordinance shall take effect and come into operation on the passing hereof.

Ordinance to commence forthwith.

(L.S.) (Signed) J. G. MACKENZIE, Governor.

Passed the Legislative Council this twenty-second day of August, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

(Signed) H. BYNG, Clerk to the Council.
