An Ordinance

Further to amend the Land Ordinance. Title.

[1st November, 1964] Date of commencement.

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Colony of the Falkland Islands as follows — Enacting clause.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Land (Amendment) Ordinance, 1964, and shall be read as one with the Land Ordinance, hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance. Short title.

2. The principal Ordinance is amended by inserting the following new heading and new section immediately after section 28 — Insertion of new heading and new section 28A in the principal Ordinance.

"PART IIIA.

FENCES.

Fencing etc, on country and suburban land. 28A. The following provisions shall have effect with respect to fences and fencing on country or suburban land —

Owners must join in fencing boundaries. (1) Where there exists no sufficient natural boundary or no sufficient boundary fence, an owner may by notice in writing call on the owner of the adjoining land to come to an agreement as to the extent or nature of the fence to be erected, or the repairs to be done to the existing fence, and such owners may agree, in writing, that such boundary fence shall not exactly follow the boundary of their lands when the physical features of the ground render a deviation necessary, and the cost of the erection or repair, as the case may be, of the boundary fence shall be divided between them in such manner as they shall agree.
