16 Amendment of Guardianship of Infants Act, 1886

The powers of a court under section five of the Guardianship of Infants Act, 1886, as amended by the Guardianship of Infants Act, 1925, to make orders regarding the custody of an infant and the right of access thereto of either parent, may be exercised upon the application of the father of an infant in like manner as those powers may be exercised upon the application of the mother of the infant.

Notes:

1. Please see www.legislation.gov.uk website for the original Act and subsequent amendments and then consider it in the light of extent of application noted above and the Principal Adaptive Provisions.
2. This legislation has little current practical effect in South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands other than confirming that the Guardianship of Infants Act, 1886 was considered to be in force in the Falkland Islands and South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands in 1954.
