Criminal Law (Amendment) Act 1951

Chapter 36

An Act to repeal the words in paragraphs (1) and (4) of section two and paragraph (2) of section three of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1885, which restrict the operation of those paragraphs in the case of a woman or girl who is a common prostitute or of known immoral character or whose usual place of abode is a brothel. [22nd June 1951.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Repeal in 48 & 49 Vict c.69

In sections two and three of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1885, the following words are hereby repealed, that is to say—

- (a) in paragraph (1) of the said section two (which deals with a person who procures a girl or woman under twenty-one, not being a common prostitute or of known immoral character, to have sexual intercourse with a third person, or who attempts to do so) the words “not being a common prostitute or of known immoral character ”;
- (b) in paragraph (4) of the said section two (which deals with a person who procures a woman or girl to leave her usual place of abode in the United Kingdom (such place not being a brothel) for a brothel, or who attempts to do so) the words “ (such place not being a brothel)”
- (c) in paragraph (2) of the said section three (which deals with a person who procures a woman or girl, not being a common prostitute or of known immoral character, to have sexual intercourse with anyone by false pretences or false representations) the words not being a common prostitute or of known immoral character”.
